Webster To-day Has Lead In Burrard Count

Candidate of C.C.F. for Commons Two Votes Ahead of G. G. McGeer, K.C., Liberal, as Count of Absentee Ballots Nears End in Vancouver

Four Ballots Are Still to Be Talled

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Oct. 29.—Arnold Webster, C.C.F., had a lead of two votes over Mayor G. G. McGeer, Liberal, in the Vancouver-Burrard federal riding when the count of absentee ballots was adjourned to-day until Thursday with only one more poll, containing four ballots, to hear from.

The count now stands: Webster 10,236; McGeer 10,234. Telegraphic advices from the missing poll, Garret in Albert constituency, indicate Webster was the choice of three of the voters and McGeer of one.

Six absentee votes were received to-day by Returning Officer R. G. Phillips, three of them being rejected and the remaining three all favoring Mr. Webster.

Harbor Board Members Quit

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Oct. 29.—Chairman H. C. Schofield, Thomas Nagle and Frank T. Lewis, members of the Saint John Harbor Commission, have forwarded their resignations to Ottawa, they announced to-day. They have been in office since 1930.

Resignations of the Montreal and Chiboucti Harbor Commissions already are in the hands of Dominion Government, while another resignation received at Ottawa is that of J. L. Hetherington, chairman of the Halifax Harbor Commission.

Colder Weather Due In Victoria To-night

Chilling Wind From North Brings Victoria Its First "Cold Snap" of the Season; Below Zero Temperatures Reported Elsewhere

"We are expecting it colder to-night and there will probably be four to six degrees of frost in the morning, but after that the temperature will doubtless moderate," said F. Napier Denison, superintendent at the Meteorological Observatory on Gonzales Hill, when speaking this morning of Victoria's first cold snap of the season.

Victorians awoke this morning to brilliant sunshine but shivered on their way to town, as a chill wind blew from the north. Puddles of water on the roads were frozen until the sun melted the ice. The ground was hard and leaves were piled in great heaps after being blown about most of the night by a strong wind, which, at midnight reached a velocity of thirty-eight miles an hour from the northeast.

Many dahlias and other late flowers were pinched by the chilling blasts.

MAY SET RECORD

It was one of the earliest cold snaps Victorians could remember, but personal of the weather records at Gonzales showed there have been temperatures just as low in October in other years. If this weather keeps up, however, Mr. Denison said, a record may be set.

The lowest temperature this morning was thirty degrees. At 10.30 o'clock it had risen to thirty-three degrees, but with sundown this afternoon the thermometer was expected to fall again. Snow could be seen this morning in small patches on the Sooke Hills—the first of the season.

B.C. SUFFERS FLOOD LOSS

Reports From Government Engineer at Rupert Indicate Extensive Damage

The B.C. Government will have a fairly heavy damage bill to meet as the result of the storms and floods ravaging the northern coast section of the province.

While the Department of Public Works headquarters had only scattered information to-day, word from the district engineer at Prince Rupert said the loss would be extensive. Further details were sought.

There is only a small sum left in the district's works vote and this will hardly cover the cost of repairs.

The Kitimat River, flowing into Alice Arm, is swollen higher than ever before. Stringers and bents floating down are believed to indicate heavy damage to bridges along the Dolly Varden mine railway which the government has taken over.

As there are not many government roads in the flooded area, however, the loss total will be kept down in this regard.

FOOD RATIONS IN ITALY NOW

Rome, Oct. 29.—Premier Mussolini to-day put the nation on a six-months' diet to fight the sanctions imposed by the League of Nations.

The first of the measures, effective November 8, orders restricted sale of meat to reduce the necessity of imports. Restrictive measures were also put on public dining rooms.

The first of the orders to become effective will close butcher shops on Tuesdays and on Wednesdays. They cannot sell beef, poultry or pork, during the duration of the diet law. The butcher shops, as recompense for the two days' restrictions, will be permitted to sell meat on Thursdays.

Detachments Move Twenty-five Miles From Old Line in North Ethiopia

Associated Press
Rome, Oct. 29.—Italian patrols in northern Ethiopia have penetrated twenty-five miles further into the interior, covering half the distance between Addis Ababa and Makale, an official communiqué said to-day.

At the same time, on the Somali front, the communiqué stated, native patrols from the Italian forces routed Ethiopian troops between Seilawa and Gushal in Ogaden Province, capturing 732 Ethiopian rifles.

The troop movements occurred despite new application of sanctions to halt the "war without a battle," as Italy took further precautions at home to forestall the punitive measures.

While League nations imposed financial sanctions against Italy, the nation attempted to conserve its vital products and to prepare to obtain more if necessary.

TALKS DESIGNED TO END WAR IN ETHIOPIA FAIL

British-French Efforts Break Down and London Officials Say "There Is Nothing to Put Before Mussolini"

Sir S. Hoare to Go to Geneva

Associated Press
London, Oct. 29.—Official sources to-day reported a breakdown in efforts by British and French diplomats to reach a basis of agreement for a possible settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

Maurice Peterson, head of the Ethiopian department of the British Foreign Office, went to Paris recently to talk to French experts in an effort to reach a technical agreement as to how peace could be restored.

RETURNED TO LONDON

The talks failed and Peterson returned to London. Official sources said no further contacts of the kind were envisaged, although diplomatic exchanges would be continued.

It was stated in official quarters: "There is nothing to put up to Geneva or Mussolini at present." It was added that experts had been unable to reach any kind of agreement considered practical by either government.

AGREE ON PROCEDURE

Paris, Oct. 29.—A reliable source said to-day Great Britain and France had reached a working agreement on the procedure to be followed at Geneva concerning the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

Fewer Warships For Mediterranean

Canadian Press From Havas
London, Oct. 29.—The government has decided to withdraw a number of warships from the Mediterranean and will so inform Italy. It was understood in usually reliable quarters here to-night.

It was believed a communication to this effect would be handed to the Italian Foreign Office by Sir Eric Drummond, British Ambassador to Italy.

Italy already has announced withdrawal of a division of troops from Libya, where Britain had declared they menaced Egypt.

NEW DELAY IN BEER AND WINE

No Decision Reached in Third Attempt to Deal With Victoria Petition

For the third time the provincial cabinet discussed beer and wine to-day.

Premier Pattullo stated afterward no decision had been reached.

The government is considering the petition submitted by the Moderation League asking that sale of beer and wine be permitted in Victoria hotels and restaurants. The petitioners proposed that existing liquor regulations could be amended without recourse to the Legislature to allow this change in the system of liquor control. Alternatively, they asked for a plebiscite initiated on the basis of the petition.

While no official statement could be obtained, it was understood delay was occasioned by legal interpretations of the petitioners' proposals.

Careful examination of the Liquor Act caused doubt to arise as to whether or not the government has power to permit sale of wine in hotels or in any other place except at official vendors' stores.

The regulations could be amended, however, to allow the sale of beer only in restaurants or other eating houses.

Legal opinion obtained by the petitioners placed a different interpretation on the act.

In any event, due to the marked difference of opinion in the government caucus during the last two sessions, political observers believed the government would not attempt to move without a plebiscite.

The apparent issue now is whether such a plebiscite should be held locally in Victoria, all over the province, or delayed until the liquor question can be discussed at the next session of the Legislature.

Yawning Woman Returns to Home

After three days in hospital, Mrs. P. E. Wakelin, 1319 Camosun Street, returned to her home to-day, yawning. "It was noticed that she had obtained relief from the strange affliction, for short periods in the hospital when she slept under the influence of sedatives. Upon awakening however, she again commenced yawning. At home she is being kept quiet to prevent irritation of the nervous system."

Premier King Asks Provinces What Date Most Suitable for Ottawa Discussions

Canadian Press

Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced yesterday evening following a session of the cabinet, the provincial governments were being communicated with on the most suitable date to them.

Three sittings of the cabinet have been held, two of which were very lengthy, since the new administration took office six days ago; and these deliberations have been marked by considerable progress, it was stated.

Cabinet sessions will continue to be held almost daily while the government is engaged in dealing with current problems and initiating new policies.

Hundreds in Honduras Reported Marooned in Tree-tops and on Hills With Little Hope of Rescue From Swirling Waters

Associated Press
Tegucigalpa, Honduras, Oct. 29.—The bodies of seventy persons drowned in the present floods were recovered at Corozito to-day, leading officials to estimate that further reports would indicate Honduras to be suffering the worst disaster in the nation's history. It has been estimated 2,000 lost their lives.

The rupture of communications prevented general reports on the loss of life, but it is known from official reports that hundreds of persons are marooned in hills and tree-tops and in danger of death unless rescued soon.

Most of the rivers throughout the country were over their banks as a result of torrential rains which followed.

Brandy Saves Wild Geese At Niagara

North-south Feathered Travelers Which Went Over Horseshoe Falls Are Rescued; Soon Ready to Fly South

Associated Press
Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 29.—Brandy fed with a medicine dropper revived twenty-five out of twenty-seven wild geese while the flock of between 5,000 and 10,000 rested in dangerous waters above the cataract Sunday and yesterday.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police fished geese from the rapids below the falls and hurried them to a farm near Queenston, where there is a bird sanctuary. There R. W. Sheppard, district inspector for the Federal Department of Agriculture, fed them the brandy.

The birds all were more dead than alive when taken from the river and two died almost immediately. But the others, some of them plainly "drunk," soon were honking wildly as the spirits "pepped them up."

Saying "I bet you never tasted anything like this in Baffin Land," Sheppard would shoot a dropper full of the brandy down the goose's gullet. The bird would shake its head

Identity of Dead Fisherman at Galiano Unknown; One Man Is Saved; Tug Rushes to Sunken Craft Off Cadboro Bay

Storm Washes Wrecks Ashore

One man was known dead, another saved, and the crew of a fishing boat is believed lost as the result of the fierce storm which swept the Gulf of Georgia last night and early this morning. Two fish craft were wrecked at the north end of Galiano Island and one was sunk one mile northwest of Ten Mile Point.

Only meagre details of the wrecks were available and until late this afternoon it had been impossible to secure the names of those lost or the names of the boats.

First word of the tragedy off Ten Mile Point was received from the northbound steamer Princess Alice, whose master reported by wireless to headquarters of the B.C. Coast Steamship Service here that a wreck of a fish boat had been sighted a mile northwest of the point.

Provincial Police were notified and they immediately dispatched the tug Planet from the Island Tug and Barge Company wharf. The Planet expected to reach the scene about 2.30 o'clock, as she had to buck a stiff head wind.

WRECKS ON GALIANO

Late this morning police were notified of the Galiano wreck and steps were taken immediately to locate Corporal J. O. Tweedmore, whose P.M.L. 6 to have him investigated.

Over the long distance telephone The Times was informed the two fishing boats were wrecked near the last entrance of Portler Pass.

Late this afternoon additional details of the wrecks were received from Mrs. E. H. Gear of North Galiano Island, who earlier in the day had informed the police of the tragedy.

According to Mrs. Gear both boats were owned by Seattle men who were proceeding from Vancouver to the Sound City. One of the boat's engines stalled and it is believed the other craft took the disabled boat in tow.

THROWN ON ROCKS

The heavy seas proved too much for them, however, and as they sought to enter treacherous Portler Pass last night from the east entrance to seek shelter in Butchart Cove they were dashed on the rocks on the north shore of Galiano Island.

The man who was saved dragged the body of his drowned companion on to the shore and then set out to find help. He wandered around the (Turn to Page 2, Col. 3.)

ATTEMPTED TO WRECK TRAIN

Smithers, B.C., Oct. 29.—Two Indians from the Fraser Lake Reserve today faced penitentiary terms of sixteen and seventeen years respectively at hard labor for attempting to derail a Canadian National Railway train near Bulkley Canyon on the Prince Rupert line September 27.

Police reported Arthur Sutherland, nineteen, and Joe Isaac, twenty-eight, stated after their arrest "they did it for fun and wanted to see a wreck."

Judge H. R. A. Robertson in county court sentenced Sutherland, who pleaded guilty, to sixteen years, and Isaac, who pleaded guilty, to seventeen years at hard labor.

One Dead, Others Missing in Wrecks

The north end of the island all night not knowing his whereabouts and when he arrived at Mrs. Gair's home this morning he was ice cold and dead.

Residents of the Gulf Islands speak of a "terrifying night" in the words of one Galiano resident as the sudden north wind swept down the channel with hurricane force endangering all small craft as sea and many which were insecurely moored.

The police launch No. 6 was contacted early this afternoon at Chemainus from a division here and immediately set out for Port Moody. The distance is about nine miles and the little ship has to battle high seas as the storm continues unabated.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Constable O. Davis of the provincial police, who was sent to investigate the Ten Mile Point wreck reported he had been unable to get near the stranded boat.

Constable Davis was accompanied by C. B. McIntosh, the caretaker of the Royal Victoria Club; Alex Wilby and Arthur Beeding. They went out in the Mandalay B. Mr. Beeding's forty-eight-foot power craft.

The patrol cruiser Givenchy was standing by when the party arrived and members of the crew informed Constable Davis the small craft had sunk and they did not know how many had been aboard.

Owing to the heavy sea running between Cadboro Bay and Ten Mile Point the Mandalay B. was unable to get closer and returned to the yacht club.

The master of the tug Planet reported to the tug company office by wireless that the small craft was ashore on Chatham Point and they would lower a boat to go ashore and investigate.

Finance Minister Dunning, who took over his office yesterday, will have the responsibility of taking up the matter of trade negotiations with the United States which were interrupted by the general election and have not yet been resumed.

Mr. Dunning will also be called on to deal with the problem of loans to western provinces and to administer the Housing Act, farm loans, Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act and the Bank of Canada.

EMPEROR'S TENT IS CAMOUFLAGED

Associated Press
Addis Ababa, Oct. 29.—Emperor Haile Selassie's imperial red tent was shipped to the troop concentration centre of Dessie to-day together with that of Haile Likamoh was, the Emperor's double.

The imperial tent is small, obscure and completely camouflaged, and even if Italian military planes should sight the red canvas in a bombing attack on Dessie, they could not be sure of hitting the Emperor, for his tent is again a double to that of Likamoh's.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY
The communique issued on the twenty-seventh day of hostilities, said the first army corps had executed a reconnaissance at Haumen, about twenty-five miles south of Addis Ababa, the most objective of the Italian Eritrean army.

Other patrols to the west have conducted reconnaissance expeditions southwest of Addis as far as the Takka River, thirty miles from the old line, the communique stated.

The Italians have not encountered important resistance, it said.

An official source said the government looked forward confidently to a scramble for Italian trade after existing commercial contacts have been disrupted by economic sanctions.

BOMBS DROPPED
With the Italian Forces in Ethiopia, Oct. 29 Canadian Press Exchange Telegrams—Italian war planes flew over Maglio, 235 miles southeast of Addis Ababa, to-day and found the town strongly fortified with a large concentration of Ethiopian troops.

The planes were armed with incendiary fire, and a number of bombs were dropped.

Addis Ababa, Oct. 29.—Italian planes bombed the Walait region, on the border of the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan, several times to-day, according to unconfirmed reports reaching here.

It was also said the bombers flew over Petras Tabor, east of Lake Tana, the point where British interests are concentrated.

Two trains bearing 1,500 soldiers from Addis Ababa have reached Dire Dawa on their way to the Ogaden (southern front), and early next week Emperor Haile Selassie will send a new army of 40,000 men north to headquarters at Dessie.

HARRY THAW IN DAMAGE SUIT
Associated Press
Washington, Oct. 29.—Harry K. Thaw was named to-day as defendant in a $10,000 damage suit filed by Paul J. Mack, head waiter of the Shoreham Hotel, charging assault.

Thaw, who rocketed to notoriety a quarter of a century ago with the killing of Stanford White in New York, was accused by Mack of assaulting and humiliating him January 3 in the hotel dining-room.

Newspaper accounts of the affair recorded Thaw was escorted from the dining-room by hotel employees after he had allegedly struck the head waiter for interfering in an impromptu "floor show" that had been attempted.

THE VOTE LEADS TO RECOUNT

Liberal in Chapeau, Que., Refuses to Let Returning Officer Decide

Amos, Que., Oct. 29.—The neck-and-neck battle for the parliamentary seat in the northern Quebec constituency of Chapeau was renewed to-day. T. A. Lalonde, official Liberal candidate, defeated by a single vote cast by the returning officer in compliance with the Dominion Election Act to break tie, announced to-day he would request a judicial recount of ballots.

Through an official tabulation of votes yesterday evening Lalonde was tied with Frank Blais, independent Liberal, whose election was conceded by the Liberal headquarters election night, October 15. At the conclusion each had 3,094 votes. The tie was broken by Olympic Plante, returning officer, exercised his right under this provision of the act.

BACK IN 1887
The only parallel instance was in 1887, when Edouard Guibault, Conservative, was declared elected over J. Neveu, Liberal, in the Quebec constituency of Joliette, after the returning officer had cast his vote.

This was not the only previous case of a tied vote, however. In the first election in Marquette after Manitoba entered confederation, Angus McKay and James A. Lynch, parties unrecorded, each received 282 votes in 1871.

There was no provision in those days for a returning officer to cast a deciding vote. After parliament met a resolution was approved to declare both candidates elected. Before the House of Commons finally disposed of the question, however, parliament was dissolved.

However, both French and British officials, published reports that any plan for the settlement of the war had been drafted.

The agreement on the Geneva plan of action was reached in a series of conferences between Premier Laval and Sir George Russell Clerk, the British ambassador.

The British embassy particularly ridiculed reports that an agreement on a peace plan had been reached by British and French experts in Paris, saying no British experts had been in Paris.

TO PRESENT CASE
The Foreign Office described Paris and London as being "in complete agreement on all questions of procedure." They were reported to be in agreement also on Italy's "present position in the League of Nations."

The reference to "Italy's position" was interpreted in circles close to the Foreign Office as meaning Premier Mussolini would be encouraged to present his case against Ethiopia again to the League of Nations committee through the League of Nations.

ALLIANCE REPORTED
Fernand de Brinon, sometimes called Laval's "unofficial ambassador," reported Britain is considering a "defensive alliance" with France for "the pacification of Europe."

It appears the London government and the chiefs of the army and admiralty have reached the conviction it is necessary to the peace of Europe to give France a special guarantee which will serve as the basis for a general pacification, he wrote in the newspaper L'Information.

De Brinon failed to describe the guarantee, but it was presumed by observers to be for special aid to France in case of an unprovoked attack from the Continent, similar to France's promise to aid Britain in the event of an attack on the latter in the Mediterranean.

London, Oct. 29.—Great Britain imposed its second sanction against Italy to-day with enforcement of an embargo on credit to the Fascist nation.

A surprise announcement that Foreign Secretary Sir Samuel Hoare, as well as Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, would go to Geneva this week to represent Britain in view of "important decisions" to be taken, led to a belief in some quarters that even further punitive measures would soon be undertaken.

British sources expressed hope the Foreign Secretary's presence at the League of Nations would lead to more definite Italo-Ethiopian "peace talks" than have yet been held.

Sir Samuel, accompanying the Minister for League Affairs, was expected to confine himself to committee work, with possible private meetings with Premier Laval, central figure in the European negotiations, and other leading statesmen.

Effective to-day, the British money market was forbidden to make loans to Italian banks in London, acceptance or endorsement of bills of exchange for the benefit of such a bank, while Premier Mussolini is believed to want a free port.

Foreign leaders commanded by Italian officers patrolling the border territories adjoining Eritrea and Italian Somaliland, disarming the natives, abolishing slavery, and maintaining law and order.

WOULD DEFEAT PEACE
Such an arrangement would defeat Premier Mussolini's ambitions in several directions:

1. It would deprive Italy of sovereignty over the rich northern provinces.

2. It would fail to provide for Italy's much-desired link between Eritrea and Italian Somaliland.

3. It would give Italy territory, much of which it does not want.

LAVAL AT GENEVA
Paris, Oct. 29 (Associated Press).—Premier Laval, still seeking a settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict, decided to-day to go to Geneva.

AGED WOMEN'S HOME TEA TO-MORROW

Mrs. W. L. Clay, the president, with Mrs. Wm. Grant and Mrs. I. A. Gould, two of the senior members of the board, will receive the guests at the annual "at home" and book shower to be held at the Aged Women's Home, McClure Street, to-morrow afternoon. Mrs. Harold Grant is convening the affair. Tea will be served and visitors will be shown over the home which has recently been renovated inside and out.

Thursday to confer with Foreign Secretary Sir Samuel Hoare and Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden of Great Britain.

Despite this decision, looking to the next move in the European diplomatic negotiations for peace, France prepared for full participation in the League of Nations war throughout the world against the war in east Africa.

Geneva, Oct. 29.—The "shotgun drive" against Italy to force an early end to the war in Ethiopia took on new impetus to-day.

An official communique showed twenty-four nations have agreed to take part in the buy-nothing-from-Italy boycott proposed by Great Britain.

These nations are the Union of South Africa, Australia, Belgium, Great Britain, Bulgaria, Denmark, Estonia, France, Greece, Guatemala, India, Latvia, Liberia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Rumania, Sweden, Switzerland, Russia and Yugoslavia.

The communique indicated the same countries have promised to apply the second feature of the economic boycott, namely an embargo on exportation to Italy of certain key products vital to the manufacture of arms and the implements of war.

FINANCIAL SANCTIONS
Application of financial sanctions against Italy has been made by twenty-nine countries. They are: The Union of South Africa, Australia, Belgium, Great Britain, Bulgaria, China, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, France, Greece, Guatemala, India, Iraq, Iran, Latvia, Liberia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, Norway, New Zealand, Poland, Rumania, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Russia and Yugoslavia.

Revised figures show thirty-eight countries have agreed to the arms embargo against Italy. They are the Union of South Africa, Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Great Britain, Bulgaria, China, Colombia, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Guatemala, India, Iraq, Luxembourg, Norway, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Poland, Rumania, Siam, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Russia, Uruguay and Yugoslavia.

MUTUAL AID
Eight nations have agreed to the mutual aid project by which countries have agreed to the arms embargo against Italy. They are the Union of South Africa, Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Great Britain, Bulgaria, China, Colombia, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Greece, Guatemala, India, Iraq, Luxembourg, Norway, The Netherlands, New Zealand, Poland, Rumania, Siam, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, Russia, Uruguay and Yugoslavia.

Official aid the sanctions would be placed in the hands of committee to make them effective. The general staff for sanctions of fifty-two nations will meet Thursday to fix the date for enforcement of a double-barreled economic boycott of Italy, cutting off its exports to League states and limiting imports of key products.

London, Oct. 29.—A counter-proposal by Anglo-French colonial experts, revising Premier Mussolini's demands on Ethiopia, was being studied to-day by the French and British governments.

The plan is understood to refuse Italy its desired protectorate over rich Tigre province and the link he wishes to establish between his East African colonies.

At the same time secret action by the Vatican in the past several days has been revealed here. Pope Pius XII has not only urged the Italian Government to make concessions to save further bloodshed in Ethiopia, but also has instructed his nuncios at League of Nations capitals to seek a settlement under the League covenant by all possible means.

THREE POINTS
The proposal drawn up by the Anglo-French committee of experts, differing considerably from Italy's original peace demand, was understood to include these points:

1. Appointment of an Italian adviser to Emperor Haile Selassie, under whom an Italian governor would administer virtually the entire southern half of Ethiopia in the Emperor's name.

2. Frontier revision in Tigre and Danakil provinces to the north, these territories to be administered by the League of Nations.

3. An Ethiopian outlet to the sea in Italian Eritrea, with a strip of Ethiopian territory leading to this port. (Pope Pius is reported urging full Ethiopian control of such a port, while Premier Mussolini is believed to want a free port.)

4. Foreign legations commanded by Italian officers patrolling the border territories adjoining Eritrea and Italian Somaliland, disarming the natives, abolishing slavery, and maintaining law and order.

YOUTH IS TO GET $300,000

M. Chenoweth, Vancouver, Said to Have Inherited Sum in England

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Oct. 29.—A fortune estimated at between $300,000 and $400,000 is reported to have been left to Melville "Buck" Chenoweth, eighteen-year-old Vancouver youth whose parents died at Balaklava B.C. through the death of an uncle in England.

The youth, a native of Cranbrook, B.C., is attending a school of accountancy and science here. A brother and two sisters, all younger than himself, reside with his parents in the Bridge River district, where his father is superintendent of the Brikmore mine.

"I would like to buy a car and see Canada and the United States first, but of course everything will really have to be decided by my parents," he said in reply to a question as to what he intended to do with the money.

Colder Weather Due In Victoria To-night

The Olympic Mountains were quite heavily covered.

COLDER ELSEWHERE
Victoria, however, was one of the lucky spots in the northern half of North America. Seattle and Vancouver both reported snow. Prince Rupert is isolated by floods and the temperature there fell this morning to twenty-two degrees. At Estevan, on the west coast of the island it was twenty-eight. Kamloops reported four degrees above and Prince George four above. Calgary was two above, and four inches of snow and a strong northerly gale. All through the Prairies blizzard-like weather was reported. In the Far North temperatures were moderating a little. Dawson reported two degrees below and Hudson Hope, in the Peace River district twelve below. At Jasper Park it was zero.

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Oct. 29.—The first frost of the season struck Vancouver to-day as the thermometer dropped to twenty-nine degrees at 6:30 a.m. Water lying in the streets was frozen solid but a brilliant sun brought warmer temperatures during the day.

Fairbanks, Oct. 29.—Winter struck with numbing force yesterday and the temperature dropped to twenty-four degrees below zero, breaking all October records in the thirty-four years the United States Weather Bureau has kept records here.

The lowest previous October record was established in 1907 with twenty-one degrees below zero.

Ice gorged the Chena River in Fairbanks, a week in advance of its gorge in 1934.

The official temperature reading was taken in a sheltered spot on the Chena River bank. A weather bureau thermometer exposed in the heart of the city showed twenty below, and the weather bureau station at the University of Alaska reported thirty-five below.

ON THE PRAIRIES
Canadian Press
Winnipeg, Oct. 29.—Snow and more snow, whistling winds and tumbling temperatures, to-day convinced prairie folk that winter means business this time.

"An overnight blizzard gripped the uplands of Saskatchewan. Around Saskatoon and Prince Albert snow fell heavily, driving before its winds from the north."

Moose Jaw and Regina, too, reported winter-like weather. At Regina rain started yesterday evening, turning to sleet and then this morning to light snow.

In Alberta temperatures were around the zero mark. There was snow

PRINCE MAY BE AUSTRIAN KING

Friends of Ernst von Star-
hemberg, Vice-Chancellor,
Talk of Him as Monarch

Associated Press

Vienna, Oct. 29.—Supporters of Austria's spectacular Vice-Chancellor, young Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, talked freely today of putting a royal sceptre in his hands.

The prince, a friend of Benito Mussolini and a foe of Adolf Hitler, has opposed immediate restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty with increasing vigor.

With his grip on the government strengthened appreciably by the recent shakeup in the cabinet, the Fascist leader of the Heimwehr (Home Guard) may be installed as regent "about Christmas time," predicted friends.

Tentative plans call for merging the Heimwehr with Austria's other private armies January 1. If a regency were created before the end of the year, Starhemberg still would have direct control of his Heimwehr.

SOLLOWAY TELLS OF TRADING

Toronto, Oct. 29.—"It was a speculative business—just like horse racing," said I. W. G. Solloway, discussing the stock brokerage business before 1900, in his testimony before O. E. Lennox, assistant master of the Supreme Court of Ontario yesterday.

Mr. Solloway was a witness at the hearing of an application for a declaration that as a director and officer of Solloway, Mills and Company Limited (Dominion Company), he was guilty of misfeasance and breach of trust in the application of certain funds for the corporation.

NEW CONSUL FOR U.S. AT OTTAWA

Washington, Oct. 29.—Joseph P. Burt, assigned to the Department of State but presently serving at Montreal, has been appointed United States consul at Ottawa, Ont. The change was announced yesterday.

Edwin Schoenrich, the present consul at Ottawa, has been assigned to the Department of State for duty here.

Other United States foreign service changes included assigning of Douglas MacArthur Jr. and Elbert G. Matthews to be vice-consuls at Vancouver.

TO MEET ON LOAN PLANS

City Council to Sit as Public Works Committee on $100,000 Projects

Selection of projects on which the city intends to spend the $100,000 loan, promised by the provincial government, will be determined at a special session of the City Council sitting as the public works committee in the near future.

Yesterday evening the council received a tabulated list of suggestions and after considerable debate, in which it was revealed the list did not exclude the possibility of considering other projects, was tabled for the public works committee's consideration.

The date for the meeting will be set by Mayor Leeming.

Alderman James Adam recommended the report be left on the table for a special meeting of the City Council's public works committee, preferably on a Wednesday afternoon.

ASKS COSTS

Alderman Archie Willis suggested each alderman be furnished with a list of costs involved in each project mentioned. He also wanted further information on such matters as plans for Macdonald Park. He noted the civic auditorium project had been left out.

Alderman John Worthington stated no project had been recommended to the special committee. He wished to see an early start on Oaklands School auditorium.

Alderman R. A. C. Dewar stated he thought too much time had been wasted already.

Alderman Alex Feden suggested five or six projects be selected for immediate work.

Acting Mayor P. R. Brown brought up the Bowker Creek issue.

It could not be started this year, Alderman Andrew McGavin stated.

BOWKER CREEK PLAN

Alderman Willis rose to state that at a meeting between city aldermen and Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, Mr. Hart had suggested the city get the municipalities of Saanich and Oak Bay together and he might attempt to make favorable terms for Bowker Creek improvement, quite apart from the $100,000 loan.

Alderman Luney stated the inter-municipal committee had met and secured a grade for which they were to get their separate councils approval. Until Oak Bay accepted the grade no action could be taken. When Oak Bay came into line plans for the financing of the projects could go forward, he said.

Alderman T. W. C. Hawkins called for speedy action to permit a start on some of the schemes.

The whole issue was referred to the public works committee on the understanding a meeting would be called shortly.

Letters covering other suggested schemes were tabled for the special meeting.

WANT MEASURE FOR SAWDUST

In view of the possibility of consumers being "gypped" owing to the lack of a standard measure, Alderman Walter Luney yesterday asked the City Council to request the city solicitor for a definite unit by which sawdust fuel should be sold in the city.

The alderman inquired if any standard system of measurement was enforced for sawdust, contending certain loads were not the same in size as others.

No definite system of measures had been ordered, H. S. Pringle, city solicitor, informed him.

UNIT NEEDED

"There should be some system. If there is none, some people are liable to be 'gypped,'" the alderman contended.

The matter was referred to the markets committee and the city solicitor to bring in a recommendation.

The action was taken after a new by-law governing the standardization of weights and measures for door-to-door peddlars had been given its first three readings. The by-law will come up for final passage at the next council meeting.

LITTLE HOPE FOR SIGNAL

Council Not Favorably Disposed to Installation of Extra Stop Light

A request from Chief of Police Thomas Heatley for the installation of a traffic signal at the intersection of Yates and Blanshard streets met scant consideration from one member of the City Council yesterday evening before that body referred the matter to the electric lights committee.

Alderman Andrew McGavin led the attack on the proposal, stating he thought the city should save any money it had over from its 1935 automatic signal appropriation and should leave the matter for the consideration of the next year's council.

Alderman Archie Willis asked the letter be referred to the electric lights committee and outlined the policy that group had adopted in connection with new signals. His motion was finally adopted.

Alderman Alex Feden declared the chief's judgment on the traffic matter should be respected and his recommendation should be given consideration.

Alderman McGavin remarked the chief had asked for three new signals and the city could not afford to get them.

"I think you'll find if the question goes back to the electric lights committee that committee will recommend no new lights this year," he declared.

Quiet Day for City Ministers

Pastors Are Guests at St.
Michael's, Royal Oak, for Annual Retreat

Ministers of Greater Victoria to-day held their annual retreat and quiet day as guests of Rev. F. Comley at St. Michael's Church, Royal Oak. They assembled shortly after 10 o'clock this morning and continued their seclusion until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Luncheon was served at noon by the women's auxiliary of the church. The retreat opened with devotional services, conducted by Rev. C. G. MacKenna, pastor of Centennial United Church and president of the Ministerial Association.

Dean Quinlan gave the first study of the day on "Enrichment Through Meditation and Prayer." This was followed by a study of "Enrichment Through Study," given by Rev. Dr. E. A. Henry of Fairview United Church.

The luncheon guests were E. O. Snowden, city relief officer, who discussed unemployment conditions in the city with the ministers, and Dr. C. E. Silcox, secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada.

This afternoon W. M. Hotham gave a study on "Enrichment Through Service," dealing particularly with the work of John Howard Society among prisoners of Oakalla prison farm. Mr. Hotham is an active member of the society.

TO GIVE NEEDY USED CLOTHING

Quantities of used clothing have been received by the city relief department from the Friendly Help Welfare Association, the City Council was informed in a relief committee report presented yesterday evening.

Thanks have been extended to the association for the goods, which will be distributed by the city department. The council was also informed much more clothing was required and the aid of citizens generally was requested.

The special section of the relief office created for that work would be in operation in November, the report stated. An extra telephone was ordered for the office to facilitate the work.

A request will go forward from the city to the Friendly Help Welfare Association asking for the return of furniture turned over to that body when it succeeded the old Friendly Help.

On the relief committee's suggestion the council referred to the finance committee a recommendation for a donation toward the Gyro Christmas hamper fund.

Tie Halts Move For Committee

Aldermen Equally Divided on Move to Study B.C.E.R.
Franchise

As a result of one of those strange coincidences which occur every few years, the motion of Alderman Archie Willis, seeking the appointment of a standing committee to consider matters related to the expiration of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company's franchise here, finished exactly where it started in the City Council yesterday evening.

The motion seeking its endorsement was defeated on a tie vote. An amendment which would have tabled the issue for two or three months, finished the same way.

Alderman Willis indicated, however, he would raise the issue at a future meeting, at which Mayor Leeming would be present to cast the deciding vote either way.

Alderman Willis explained his motion, stressing the desirability of continuity in the city's investigations into the franchise as well as the study of new methods of transportation.

Alderman James Adam expressed the idea the proposal was two years too early. He moved an amendment that it be laid on the table for next year's council.

The amendment was put, with Alderman James Adam, T. W. C. Hawkins, Alex Feden, John Worthington and Acting-Mayor P. R. Brown voting in the affirmative.

Alderman J. D. Hunter, Andrew McGavin, Walter Luney, Archie Willis and R. A. C. Dewar cast their votes in the negative on the amendment and in the affirmative on the motion in which the others were in the negative.

Both amendment and motion were lost on the tie vote.

RESULTS COME FROM PRAYERS

Rev. John McTurk, Chilliwack, Addresses Shanti-
men's Annual Meeting

World change can only be brought about by the answering of prayers, and unless they are answered the world will continue on at the same dead level regardless of the number of times which governments are changed, Rev. John McTurk of Chilli-wack, said in an address at the annual meeting of the Shantimen's Christian Association in the Y.W.C.A. yesterday evening.

Mr. McTurk spoke at the meeting which followed the annual dinner. About 100 members and their friends attended the dinner and 150 attended the meeting.

Dealing further with the results from prayers, Mr. McTurk said results would be forthcoming for any man who lived right, open and above-board, had a clear conscience, paid his debts, treated his wife right and was righteous.

The church did harm if it did no good to a person, he said.

A report on the recently constructed Strangers' Rest in Port Alberni, which was built through the efforts of the association and the public for unemployed miners, loggers and other transients, was given by Percy Willis, island missionary.

The deed of the building was handed over to J. S. Whiting, superintendent.

Mr. Willis explained the provincial government had promised gifts of a traveling library and educational books for the new premises.

A general summary of the association's work on the island during the last twelve months was given by Mr. Whiting. E. Whiting reported on the distribution of literature to the needy while Miss Sylvia Boyden reported on the Sunday School classes held at Cordova Bay and in Esquimalt.

A letter was read from W. H. Adamson, president of the association in Toronto, expressing best wishes from himself and the board of directors to all friends in Victoria and Vancouver Island.

Mr. Whiting also read a letter from Miss Grace Raper with the sad news that on October 7 her father passed away. Felix Raper and family left Victoria about eighteen months ago.

CHOIR LEADERS DISCUSS WORK

Newly Organized Group Will Seek Wider Membership
Among Local Musicians

Last Saturday evening the recently organized Choral Conductors' and Organists' Association held its monthly meeting in the Memorial Hall as guests of Stanley Bulley, the cathedral organist.

President W. H. Muncy, presided, and ways and means were discussed as to the future meetings of the association and for the increasing of the membership. It was felt there were a number of conductors and organists who would enjoy the meetings which have already become a means of becoming better acquainted with each other. Smaller choirs could be helped by mutual co-operation of such a body, it was pointed out.

The matter of publishing in the press forthcoming concert dates was discussed, it was decided to approach the papers and ask that a paragraph monthly be devoted to advance notices of musical events. Concert directors and committees would be able to arrange a date without clashing with other affairs by consulting the press.

Cyril Warren is the publicity secretary and notices of forthcoming concerts should be sent to him and also any inquiries regarding available dates.

Regarding the future meetings of the association some interesting programs have been arranged. It is expected that a paper will be given by one of the musicians each evening to be followed by open discussion. The subject for the next meeting will be "Church Music," one of the most vital topics to choir leaders.

During the evening the members surveyed the large stock of choral and vocal music in the Memorial Hall. Mr. Bulley has been able to procure some of the latest music for choral and instrumental work.

During the evening refreshments were served by Mrs. F. L. Tupman and Mrs. W. H. Muncy. The next meeting will be held at the home of W. H. Muncy, 3018 Blackwood Avenue, on November 16.

THEME SONG FOR COUNCIL

"Trees" Continues the Most Popular Topic at Sessions of City Fathers

Back to its favorite theme song, "Trees," the City Council turned yesterday evening to while away a pleasant quarter-hour in contemplation and argument over the growth which obscures the light and keeps the sun from shining on many of the residents of Elford Street.

A council meeting has not been held for the last two or three months at which trees have not added their decorative embellishment to the conversations.

"I would like to know what has been done in regard to the trees on Elford Street," Alderman Walter Luney mused by way of opening the cause.

"Trees," he said, were planted on Victoria's boulevards and odd places many years ago without thought of their nuisance in years to come.

Turning to Elford Street, he stated the people there deserved a place in the sun, but could not get it, owing to the excessive growth. He suggested the big trees should come down and shrubs take their place.

Balmoral Road was another location in which that practice should be put into effect, he said.

"We want beautification, not obscuration," Alderman Luney contended as he asked for a ruling on the matter of the trees.

"I have been down to Elford Street and I think all trees which are not boulevard trees on that road north of Pandora Avenue should be cut down," Alderman R. A. C. Dewar declared.

Alderman Archie Willis asked about the most recent letter from residents of the street seeking the removal of the excessive growth.

The letter had been turned over to the committee, he was told.

Alderman Luney rose again to discuss the sentiment attached to privately planted trees after Alderman John Worthington had put in a plea for the maintenance of boulevard arboreal decorations as things of beauty.

Alderman James Adam stated the policy of the committee had been to take out useless trees. He thought the appeal of the residents of Elford Street should bring action.

The matter was referred to the parks committee before the question of removing three trees from the corner of Linden and Port Street, which were blocking sewers, was passed on to the executive of the public works committee for action.

With a distinguished cast of stars, headed by Robert Donat and Madeleine Carroll, Gaumont-British Pictures Corporation's latest film "The Thirty-Nine Steps" will thrill you from the opening scene to the final fade-out. Be sure to see it when it comes to your theatre.

Robert Donat's irresistible appeal as a romantic actor is a delight to men and women alike. With his magnetic charm there is coupled that hint of sophistication that wins feminine hearts, while the touch of the swashbuckler he gives his roles is the realization of the dream of the eternal boy in every man.

You see him above as Richard Hannay with Madeleine Carroll in a scene from "The Thirty-Nine Steps"—the brilliant spy-thriller from the book written by Lord Tweedsmuir, Canada's new Governor-General. From the photograph it is quite clear that a little thing like a pair of hand-cuffs can't cramp Mr. Donat's style!

Another fine part of this plan is the protection it provides for your dependents. Should you not live to age 60, they would receive the full amount of the policy.

OCTOBER 29, 1910 (From The Times Files)

It was decided at last evening's meeting of the fire wardens to recommend to the council on Monday that a man be kept permanently on duty at the electric light station so as to start the salt water pumps in case of serious fire.

Belmont Park, N.Y., Oct. 29.—The first passenger-carrying cross-country race ever held in America and the breaking of the American record for duration were the features of yesterday's aviation meet at Belmont Park.

Angus Smith, city engineer, made an interesting suggestion for the beautification of Mount Douglas Park at last evening's meeting of the streets committee of the City Council. He believes that by the expenditures of not more than $1,000 a spiral roadway for automobiles could be constructed so that the summit could be reached.

The Dominion has authorized the reduction of rates at the Esquimalt drydock and a circular will shortly be issued setting forth the new scale of charges. It is expected that lower rates for merchant vessels will result in a considerable increase of business handled at the graving dock, which is the only one of its type in the province.

New York, Oct. 29.—Drivers of wagons of the Adams and Wells Fargo Express companies struck for higher wages yesterday, joining the strikers

In Jersey City in a demand for $5 more a month. Several small riots occurred following the general walk-out.

J. F. MESHER IS LIBERAL HEAD

President of Esquimalt Association IS Re-elected at Annual Meeting

J. F. Mesher, for many years an enthusiastic Liberal worker in the district, yesterday evening was given another term as president of the Esquimalt Liberal Association.

A vote of confidence in Mr. Mesher's work was passed with complimentary reference from members of the association.

J. P. Rogers was chosen vice-president and N. Narriotte, secretary-treasurer.

Premier W. L. Mackenzie King was named honorary president, with a vote of confidence, and Premier Pattullo and C. J. McDowell, who ran as the Liberal candidate here, were selected honorary vice-presidents.

Mr. McDowell made a short address in which he referred to the results of the election and thanked the Esquimalt Liberals for their work and support.

Other officers named were: Local executive, Messdames M. Nichol, Petrie, N. McFarlane, C. Day and B. Mesher, and N. Fraser, G. Wise, Petrie, J. Ford and J. Findlay; district executive, Messdames B. Mesher, J. McFarlane, E. R. Neel, Petrie, G. King and J. Rogers, and J. Emery, H. Prior, J. Ford, K. McFarlane, N. Narriotte, J. P. Rogers and G. King.

TORIES SEEK NEW LEADER

Plan Convention to Choose Provincial Conservative Party Head

The Conservative Party will try to make a comeback in the provincial field after the disaster it encountered in 1933 when not a single candidate bearing this stripe was successful.

Word was received here to-day that the E.C. executive of the party will meet Saturday in Vancouver to discuss a date for a provincial convention.

At this convention a leader will be chosen to succeed Dr. S. F. Tolmie, former B.C. premier.

The convention will not be for some time but they want to have the date set before the annual meetings of local organizations take place. The annual of the Victoria association is set for November 15, with ward meetings between now and that date.

So far there are no outstanding prospects for the leadership. Herbert Anson, M.P.P., of Victoria, has been mentioned, but it is a question whether he would be considered in view of his position in the Legislature as an Independent.

B. H. Dooley, K.C., M.P.P., for Esquimalt, is another old conservative stalwart who might stand a chance, but his present label in the House is Unionist. J. W. Jones, former finance minister, who is retaining an active interest in the political field, also stood as a Unionist.

Dr. Frank Patterson, president of the provincial association, has been mentioned. It is expected the battle for leadership will be a very open affair.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

IN DEFIANCE OF CHRISTIANS

Wave upon wave of Christian pilgrims had forced back the Moslems during the Crusades to the Holy Land, but at one point the defenders were secure. On a huge mound overlooking the city of Aleppo stood the massive citadel against which the most fierce attacks of the Christian invaders failed. The citadel was the rallying centre for the Moslems, while Antioch to the west remained under control of the Crusaders. A wide moat surrounded it, and it could be approached only through a gigantic double gateway.

Only when the Emperor Tamerlane invaded Syria late in the fourteenth century did this fortress fall under the battering of his siege engines. To-day, the citadel serves as quarters for a French garrison.

This ancient fortress is pictured on the stamp shown here, which Syria issued, among others, in 1935.

Honor Memory of Arthur Wolfenden

Regret over the passing of the late Arthur Wolfenden was expressed by Alderman James Adam at yesterday evening's meeting of the City Council.

"Nothing was overlooked by Mr. Wolfenden in the field of charity when it was brought to his attention," the alderman stated.

He cited the many interests held by Mr. Wolfenden in affairs for the benefit of the city and surrounding districts before calling on the council to stand in silent tribute to his memory.

Find Out

From Your Doctor if the "Pain" Remedy You Take
is SAFE

Don't Entrust Your Own or Your Family's Well-Being to Unknown Preparations.

BEFORE you take any preparation you don't know all about, for the relief of headaches; or the pains of rheumatism, neuritis or neuralgia, ask your doctor what he thinks about it—in comparison with "Aspirin."

We say this because, before the discovery of "Aspirin," most so-called "pain" remedies were advised against by physicians as being bad for the stomach; or, often, for the heart. And the discovery of "Aspirin" largely changed medical practice.

Countless thousands of people who have taken "Aspirin" year in and out without ill effect, have proved that the medical findings about its safety were correct.

Remember this: "Aspirin" is rated among the fastest methods yet discovered for the relief of headaches and all common pains . . . and safe for the average person to take regularly.

"Aspirin" Tablets are made in Canada. "Aspirin" is the registered trade-mark of the Bayer Company, Limited. Look for the name Bayer in the form of a cross on every tablet.

PARTY HERE FOR FISHING

A. M. Nicholas, "Aspro"
Manufacturer, En Route to Australia With Family

To spend a few days fishing on Vancouver Island before going on to Australia, A. M. Nicholas, head of the Nicholas Proprietary Company, manufacturers of the famous "Aspro" tablets sold largely in Great Britain and Australasia, is in the city and is registered with his party at the Empress Hotel.

The party includes Mrs. Nicholas, A. M. Nicholas Jr., Miss M. Nicholas, Mrs. C. W. Miers and C. W. Lightfoot, the last-named being works manager at the Melbourne plant.

Mr. Nicholas is well-known for his philanthropy in Australia, he having endowed the Wesley College at Melbourne.

While on his transcontinental tour Mr. Nicholas stopped at Skanawine to fish in Shuswap Lake, but, enjoying little success there, decided to test out the fishing waters of Vancouver Island. The party is proceeding today by motor to Cowichan Bay and anticipates some excellent sport.

Mr. Nicholas and his family have spent the last year in Great-Britain and on the continent, while Mr. Lightfoot has been investigating manufacturing developments in the United States.

Proceeding from here to San Francisco and Los Angeles. The party will sail by the liner Malolo for Honolulu, and, after a brief stay in Hawaii will take passage by the liner Mariposa, November 18 for Australia.

The City Council yesterday evening accepted an invitation from Christ Church Cathedral to attend the special Armistice service on Sunday, November 10. Arrangements were left in the hands of the Mayor.

Ethiopia's Defenders—Men, Women and Children— Move To Meet Foe

(Copyright, 1935, NEA Service, Inc.) Because of lack of adequate motor equipment, mule trains have been the chief means for moving munitions to the Ethiopian front lines. Here H. V. Drees, The Victoria Times NEA Service Staff Cameraman, shows you a train of heavily-laden pack mules plodding toward Walwal with cases of cartridges urgently needed in the fight against Italian invaders.

(Copyright, 1935, NEA Service, Inc.) In the great Ogaden district where Italy's southern armies strive to drive back defending forces, every home is in peril from air raids and artillery attack, so Chief Bakala Ayele, most influential man in a region near Walwal, has trained his family and retainers as home guards. Even his wife (right) and young sons bear arms for use against raiding planes or land foes.

SIX NATIONS IN BROADCAST

Red Cross Roll Call in Four Languages on NBC
To-morrow

Six nations will respond to an international Red Cross roll call in four languages from seven cities during a special broadcast over an NBC network at 11:00 a.m., P.M.T. to-morrow. Officials of the Red Cross will speak from Japan, Czechoslovakia, France, England, Canada and the United States.

The first response to the roll call will be from Ryotetsu Aijitsu of the Japanese Red Cross, from Tokyo. His talk will be translated into English by Prince Tokugawa.

France's participation in the programme will be an address by Marcelle Thiedot of the Junior Red Cross, speaking from Paris. Colonel Francis De Witt-Guisot, vice-president of the Junior Red Cross, will give a summary in English.

The names of speakers who will represent England have not yet been announced. They will talk, however, from London.

Addressees by speakers on this side of the Atlantic will originate in three cities. In Montreal the speaker will be Joan Story of the Junior Red Cross. The conclusion of the half-hour broadcast will be an address by Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the American Red Cross, from Washington.

Stations will include KPO and KOMO.

NEW TYPE LENS FOR EYEGLASSES

Considerable interest is being indicated in a new type eyeglass lens which is claimed to give clear vision to the edge of the lens, without any degree of distortion. These lenses are specially computed to give more perfect definition to the edge of the lens, thus avoiding the marginal distortion found in so many glasses still in use.

This type of lens is manufactured in Canada by the Imperial Optical Company and represents another triumph on the part of an all-Canadian organization.

With these Corneal lenses, as they are called, the wearer can see with equal clearness through any part of the glasses. They are said to reduce the astigmatic error in the normal range of vision and to provide a more uniform refraction of light rays. The various base curves that are a part of this new process have been selected in such a way that improved vision results without bulkiness in the appearance of the lenses themselves.

"AND YOU'RE THE BOY CAN DO IT"

AUGUST 15th. I arose at 4 a.m., exercised one and a quarter hours, bathed and set out for my seven miles walk to my office, quite a while before daylight. At Yonge and Bloor the street lights were put out. I was bouncing along on my Mathews Guild Moccasin-type shoes at five miles an hour. A police officer bobbed out from behind a billboard. "Good morning, Doctor," he waved, "fine morning."

"Yes, fine for a seven mile walk." "And you're the boy can do it," he returned.

Why did he say that? Because he and all others who regularly are on the route I take from Westminster Hotel on Jarvis Street near Dundas to my office on Vine Avenue, seven miles distant, more or less, see me doing it every morning in 90 minutes, even in this hot weather. Only those doubt who have not seen me sweeping along, with long, swinging, forceful strides, arms swinging, chest up, every muscle untensed, breathing to the depths of my lungs, my legs moving as smoothly as if my joints worked on roller bearings, unconscious of the least effort at any time during that seven miles walk. They doubt it because they cannot do it. They cannot do it because of their wrong living habits, chiefly their wrong foods and feeding habits.

If they would reform their feeding habits, cutting out heavy acid-forming, denatured foods and beverages and substitute Roman Meal, Bekus-Puddy or Lihus and Kofy-Sub, and eat freely of raw vegetable salad, fruits, milk and Roman Meal bread or other baked Roman Meal products and take reasonable exercise they too could do it.

Free literature explaining these foods and other important dietetic items will be sent upon request to

Helping Mothers to Cut Down On Family's Colds

Unique Formula for Nose and Throat Helps to Prevent Colds—And to Throw Off Head Colds at the Start. SOON CLEARS "STUFFY HEAD"

Mothers are so often worried about their families' colds that they find special comfort in this unique aid for preventing colds—Vicks Vapo-rinol.

Especially designed for nose and upper throat, where most colds start, Vapo-rinol stimulates the functions provided by Nature—in the nose—to prevent colds, and to throw off head colds in the early stages.

Used in time—at the first sniff, sneeze or nasal irritation—just a few drops up each nostril—Vapo-rinol helps to avoid many colds.

Where irritation has led to a clogged-up nose (a stuffy head cold or nasal catarrh) Vapo-rinol spreads through the nasal passages—reduces swollen membranes—clears clogging mucus—brings comforting relief.

A Practical Guide for Mothers Each year, more and more families are being helped to fewer colds, shorter colds and milder colds by following Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds. Vicks Plan has been clinically tested by practicing physicians, and further proved in everyday home use throughout the country. Full details of the Plan come in each package of Vicks Vapo-rinol.

anniversary of the founding of the order.

Fall vases of flowers in autumn tints provided a most effective decoration for the tables. Mrs. D. W. Burnett, president, acted as toast mistress for the short programme which followed. The toast to "the King" was responded to in the usual manner. The toast to "the Association" was proposed by Mrs. L. Schmelz, vice-president, and Mrs. J. A. Ricketts, a past president in responding spoke the wonderful progress made by the order, the membership of which now numbered hundreds of thousands, including the cradle roll departments, junior rose courts, girls' clubs, adult reviews and pleasure clubs, this providing insurance protection for all ages. Mrs. Jean Bowden, junior supervisor, proposed the toast to "the Pioneers," to which Mrs. F. W. Laing, Pioneer Club president, replied by outlining the aims and objects of the club. Mrs. McAllister, financial secretary, proposed the toast to "the Girls' Club," to which Mrs. A. Reid, club president, in replying, outlined plans for future activities of the club.

A short business meeting was later held in the Victoria Truth Centre, followed by a very enjoyable programme of games and contests arranged by the committee. Mesdames Burnell, Evans, Malcolm and Bowden. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Laxton and her committee.

Install Officers At St. Matthias

The installation of the officers of the A.Y.P.A. took place at the regular meeting held last week. Rev. Dr. T. E. Rowe, who officiated, gave an inspiring address on "The Way to Happiness."

At the business meeting it was decided to enter a badminton team in the league which is being formed under the auspices of the Local Council of the A.Y.P.A. All members are invited to attend the Halloween social which will take place at the St. Matthias hall on October 31.

WOMAN M.P. STATES VIEWS

Agnes MacPhail Welcomes Election of Mrs. George Black to House

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—Miss Agnes MacPhail, U.P.C.-Labor M.P.-elect for Grey-Bruce, arrived here to-day for a brief visit. "Glad I'm no longer the only woman in the House of Commons,"

Miss MacPhail, Canada's only woman M.P. from 1921 until this year, prepared to resume her seat on the opposition side of the House, where she will have the company of Mrs. George Black, Yukon Independent Conservative, elected to replace her husband.

The western Ontario school teacher had not forgotten her fight to obtain penal reform in Canada. She recalled a pledge Prime Minister King gave at Kingston during his campaign that an investigation would be held into penitentiaries, and expressed the hope it would not be delayed.

Miss MacPhail voiced regret over the defeat of her U.P.A. colleagues, who fell when Social Credit candidates swept Alberta. She had a word of praise for Hon. H. H. Stevens, lone Reconstructionist, because he did "a very fine piece of work in making the price-advance investigation a vital thing in Canada."

She expressed belief the election result showed a need for electoral reform. "The result," she said, "showed that the transferable vote is not enough. We must have multi-member constituencies with proportional representation if the will of the people is really to be reflected in Parliament."

Camoucan Chapter—The regular monthly meeting of Camoucan Chapter I.O.O.F. will be held at municipal headquarters, Union Building, on Friday, November 1, at 2.30 p.m.

English Chorus Girls for States

Canadian Press London, Oct. 29.—New York audiences can look forward to a fresh invasion of the Manhattan stage by English chorus girls, on the theory that "definitely English" musical productions are now in order.

Arrangements are being made it is reported, to bring several London musical comedy successes to Broadway, complete in every detail, including chorus girls.

PUPPET SHOW GIVES THRILL

Critics Praise "Wizard of Oz" Coming Here Saturday

"If you want a thrill, if you want to recapture that warm excitement and quickened interest of childhood, go see the Cornish production of 'Wizard of Oz.' If you are one of the 1,000,000 lovers of the stories of Oz as L. Frank Baum wrote them, you can rest assured that you will find nothing that takes away from the flavor of the Marionette show which is to be presented at the Empire Theatre here on Saturday, November 2, at 2.30 and 8.30 o'clock."

"W. A. Kimball, who is responsible for the adaptation, once again proved his splendid capabilities. To the direction of Irene Phillips and the supervision of Ellen Van Volkenburg goes another bouquet. A large one. They have been in my opinion, responsible for the best puppet production done by local people. Fictorially each scene is eye-catching. The puppets are exact reproductions of the original illustrations of 'The Wizard of Oz,' the critique continues.

"Even the music inserted was in keeping. Edward Chabrous, who did the words and music, deserves a big hand himself. Gay, lifting tunes, amusing words that do not in the least show a frantic effort to steal the show for themselves. There must have been nice co-operation between these four people to have created such a harmonious ensemble.

The puppets themselves are charming, with special honors going to the Tin Woodman, the Cowardly Lion, Toto, Dorothy, Oz—what's the use, they were all exactly as they should be."

The "Wizard of Oz" is being presented in Victoria under the auspices of the Commodore Broughton Chapter, I.O.O.F. and the patrons include Hon. John and Mrs. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deane and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ellis.

GIRL MANAGES FOOTBALL TEAM

Canadian Press Halifax, Oct. 29.—One of the last strongholds of the beleaguered male, the football gridiron, has bowed to the advance of woman.

True, Miss Marie Purtil won't be down there on the field when the men of Dalhousie Law School's football team go into action. But she will be the "boss" just the same.

For Miss Purtil, a comely co-ed in third-year law, is the new manager of the school's interfaculty squad at Dalhousie University. One of two girl students, she was elected almost unanimously when the embryo lawyers met to choose their team manager. She lives in Halifax.

Her assistant is Harry Sutherland of New Glasgow, N.S.

MISS WORSLEY IS MOURNED

Active Church Worker and Philanthropist Passes Away Here

After a singularly happy and interesting life spent in the service of others, Miss Violet A. Worsley passed away early yesterday morning at the home of her brother, Colonel O. S. Worsley, 610 Mount Joy Avenue, following an illness of two years. Miss Worsley had lived in Victoria for the last four years, making many new friends and finding friends of former days whom she had known in eastern and western Canada.

Born in Kingston, Ontario, in 1878, she went as a child to Halifax where she was educated in the Convent of the Sacred Heart. Among other accomplishments she developed a delightful singing voice which gave pleasure to all who knew her.

Her father was Colonel P. W. Worsley, late of the 60th Rifles, and her mother was a daughter of Hon. L. V. Scoote, a former premier of Quebec. In 1901 Miss Worsley came west to make her home with her brother who, before his retirement, was associated with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police for thirty-four years. She resided with him in Edmonton, Calgary, Ottawa, Port Saskatchewan and lived through hard and good times in the west, knowing something of the hardships of pioneering, and facing changed and changing conditions with the same brave, cheerful outlook.

During her sixteen years' residence in Regina she gave generously of her talents and her friendship, taking an outstanding part in the work of the Red Cross and other war-time activities. During the regime of Archbishop McMillan, Miss Worsley was president of the Lady Patrons of the Grey Nuns' Hospital, succeeding her friend and close associate, the late Mrs. R. Rimmer, in this office. Together they were also deeply interested in the affairs of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, and various historical, literary, dramatic and musical societies.

Miss Worsley is survived by three brothers, C. L. Worsley, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Ottawa; Col. O. S. Worsley, Victoria; and O. E. Worsley, late manager of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, N.B., and one sister, Mrs. F. H. Russell, of Toronto.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock from the residence, 610 Mount Joy Avenue, and at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, at 10.15. Rev. J. R. Buckley officiating. Interment will be in the family plot in Royal Oak Burial Park. Hayward's B.C. Funeral Co. is in charge of the arrangements.

Society Elopers Not Away Long

New York, Oct. 29.—When society youngsters elope these days, they do not go far. The other night, Marjorie Trowbridge and Robert Nicholas, Park Avenue well-knowns, escaped to Harrison, N.Y., a half hour away from Times Square, were wed hastily and returned to Manhattan the next morning.

A note from Joan Blondell says that she is coming east with the baby and that she will rent an apartment with her sister, Gloria, somewhere in the '70s, for a month or so, while she peruses plays for a Broadway appearance.

British Election Outlays $7,500,000

Candidates Spending Great Sums on Campaign Literature and Billboards

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, Oct. 29. — Not less than $7,500,000 will be spent in the general election campaign in Great Britain, it is estimated by party organizers. Most of this will go for literature, billboards and posters during the next two weeks.

The legal limit for a candidate's expenditure in Britain is determined by the number of votes in the constituency. In a county the candidate may spend twelve cents a vote, in a one-member borough constituency ten cents, in a two-member borough seven cents.

The campaign is speeding up, with party headquarters pouring out tons of literature and organizers working night and day toward the polling, November 14.

Conservative headquarters have sounded a note of caution among their workers not to count an easy victory. Fearing apathy, they point out that only a relatively small turnover of votes in many constituencies is needed to reverse the result of 1931. They stress the following points:

1. In 1929 Labor polled 37 per cent of the total vote, but obtained 287 seats out of 515.

2. In 1931 Labor polled 30 per cent of the total vote, but obtained only fifty-two seats.

3. A difference of 7 per cent in the number of Labor votes thus meant the loss of 235 seats.

MANIFESTO CRITICIZED
Opposition leaders have been concentrating their attack on the government's manifesto.

"The amount and character intended for the new expenditure on armaments is left completely vague," said the Liberal leader, Sir Herbert Samuel. "For the expansion of trade the government will rely on separate treaties with individual countries subject to the conditions set by the Ottawa agreements. The manifesto reads more like a confession of failure than a programme for the future."

"The manifesto is all very vague," declared Sir David Lloyd George, now an independent Liberal. "The actual proposals for carrying out the government's present promises have been turned down by them during their term of office, whether they came from me or their own supporters."

Promoter Tommy Drysdale to Present Fine Programme at Tillicum Gym

Well-known out-of-town and local amateur boxing and wrestling artists will perform on promoter Tommy Drysdale's mixed card to be staged Friday evening at 8.30 o'clock in the Tillicum gym. Bobby Parker, Canadian Scottish boxer, will oppose Julius Troll, Vancouver, B.C. featherweight champion, in the spotlight fixture on the programme.

Rudy Holstein, the pride of Sooke, has been matched with Ted Duerberley, Vancouver, in the semi-windup boxing match. Drysdale is making every effort to secure Frank Glover, Vancouver, lightweight champion of B.C. for a match with Rex Carey, Glover lost a close decision to Murr Patrick last year.

O'Mahoney Takes Bout With George

New York, Oct. 29.—Amid much groaning, Danno O'Mahoney, young Irish wrestling sensation, hurled back the challenge of Ed. Don George, North Jav. star, for the third time yesterday evening to defend successfully his world heavyweight title before 10,000 spectators in Madison Square Garden.

Dot Brookshaw Is Outstanding

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Dorothy Brookshaw, sprinter of the Toronto Ladies' Athletic Club, had possession of the Norman-Gale trophy to-day as Ontario's outstanding girl athlete of 1935. Miss Brookshaw was voted this province's brightest feminine athlete star at a week-end meeting here of the Ontario branch of the Women's Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada.

Crafty Coach of Saskatchewan Club May Have Surprise Team of Year

Winner Likely to Represent West

Regina, Oct. 29.—Only slightly overshadowed at that in the unprecedented wave of football enthusiasm that swept the west this fall with Winnipeg's rise to power, Regina Rough Riders go to the Manitoba capital Saturday suffering from no inferiority complex.

Led by Al Ritchie, fighting coach of a dozen fine Regina teams of other years, the Rough Riders expect to flatten Winnipeg in what is likely to be the greatest gridiron struggle ever carded in the west. The prairie have had strong football forces before, but never two as strong as these.

The word is prevalent that Ritchie's men may prove to be the surprise package of the year, that they might overcome the machine that downed Sarnia Imperials, 1934 Canadian champions, in a game last September. In any case, the winner of this battle is expected to represent the west in the Canadian final.

A top-flight strategist, Ritchie has seasoned his veterans with a sprinkling of juniors and recruits from United States. Eight Americans are on the line-up that will seek to bring Regina its seventeenth western title in twenty-two years.

The tip-off appears to lie in the hustle and efficiency of a backfield built around Walter (Okey) Olson, 185-pound forward-passing quarterback and the elusive Ralph Pearce, former University of South Dakota star. Both starred last fall when Rough Riders were beaten by Sarnia Imperials in the Dominion final.

Paul Kirk, halfback from Minnesota University, and Andy Young, a plunging homebred, are other back division men from last year's squad. Newcomers include Clio Kobanek, Minneapolis punter; O'Connor from South Dakota, who shares ball-carrying and passing work with Pearce; "Moose" Stinson, Regina junior hockey star; Paul Patrick and Cap Capraro, also homebreds.

Pearce, a ten-second sprinter in his college days, established himself as one of the country's best broke-field runners in the 1934 intercollegiate game in Toronto, and Olson also won himself a high ranking in that contest. Ritchie feels his backfield is as strong as it needs to be.

Albie Miller, former Ottawa junior, and Lloyd Connelly Jr., Minneapolis, handy flying wing, are other newcomers. Ritchie considers the youthful Miller without a peer as a pass receiver, and the Ottawa boy has distinguished himself all season with fine tackling.

There seems to be nothing wrong with the wingline. It held up in September when the Rough Riders bowed 4 to 0 to the touring Sarnia team, and it has steadily improved. Four huskies—Bob Walker, Elmer Lorentson, Larry Hogan and Johnny Garsik—played with Rough Riders last year, and Lorentson from Washington State.

George Ching, Jack Thompson, Isaac Shank and Jack Bigg round out a big-hard-charging line of ball hawks. In Ted Lydial, former Moose Jaw junior, Ritchie believes he has the best secondary defenceman the west ever produced. The regular ends are Steve McKinnon and Jim Partidge.

They have rolled over everything that has blocked their path this fall, except Sarnia, and Ritchie will start his Winnipeg confident they won't be stopped.

Star Grid Squad Will Be Problem

Eastern Canadian Football Will Offer Innumerable Candidates for This Year's All-star Outfit; Greatest Galaxy of Stars in History of Game

By ELMER DULMAGE
Toronto, Oct. 29.—When that annual puzzle-form of football, the all-eastern selection sheet, is turned over in a few weeks to sports writers and senior coaches there will be more head-scratching and pencil-chewing than the gridiron ever caused before in Canada.

The difficulty won't be lack of outstanding, top-notch football players. There will be no difficulty finding a sensational bang-up candidate for every position. The trouble will be eliminating a half-dozen other candidates for every job who are every bit as good.

Never has eastern football shown as great a galaxy of stars in one season. This is particularly the case with halfbacks—running, kicking, punting, passing specialists who from Saturday to Saturday hold the spotlight and refuse to turn in a wobbly performance.

ONE TOUGH JOB
Pity the experts who must name four rearguards for the all-eastern and ignore another dozen with such brilliant claims to recognition that they can't very well be ignored! The situation at quarterback and along the wingline isn't much less involved.

The 1934 all-eastern half line comprised Abe Eliowitz, Ottawa; Hugh Stirling and Norman Perry, Sarnia Imperials, and Frank Turville, Hamilton. Injuries have eliminated the dashing Perry from 1935 consideration and halted Turville in the midst of another great season with the Tigers.

So there will be two spots vacant to start with. Eliowitz and Stirling are just as effective as in 1934. Nearly every team can show halfbacks deserving of all-star ranking. Look at these ball-carriers: Rocky Farabee and Ormond Beach, Sarnia; Art Upper and Bobby Porter, Sarnia; Beach; Johnny Munro and Curly Krug, Queen's; Joe Connelly, Cam Gary, Mike Valerote and Bob Webber, Toronto Varsity, and Andy Anton, McGill.

Look what the Big Four alone can show in ball-carrying power: Ted Morris, Tony Rosso and Earl Selkirk, Argos; Johnny Ferraro, Hamilton; Pat Ryan and Lauri Mathieu, Montreal; Eliowitz and Stah O'Neil, Ottawa Rough Riders.

Among the standout kickers are: Stirling, Selkirk, Al Box, Balmy Beach; Huck Welch, Hamilton; Bob Ishler and Gray, Varsity; Munro, Queen's; Herb Westman, McGill; Doug Shales, Western Mustangs, and Eliowitz. A kicker will have to be able to do lots more than punt to get all-star calling this fall.

SECONDARY DEFENCE
The secondary defence giants are led by the mighty Beach, Sarnia, one of the greatest tacklers ever to play in Canada. But there are others, such as the brilliant Morris, Harry Sunshine, Queen's; Gordie Peterson, Sarnia; Johnny Agnew, Hamilton, and Tuffy Griffiths, Argos.

Ranking quarterbacks include Bobby Coulter, Toronto's Intercollegiate Jumbo; as fine a ball-carrier as any halfback; Andy Mullan, Argos; Box, Beach; Wilf Patterson, Tigers; Charlie Box, Western, and Arnie McWatters, Sarnia.

If the experts seek forward-passing excellence they won't overlook Hughie Markin, Varsity, the bullet-throwing Parson, Beach; Ferraro, Tigers, or any one of a half-dozen others who have shown pitching prowess. Marks, former Rochester, N.Y., schoolboy is generally credited with being the best of the passers.

Calgary Will Get Amerks' Players
Calgary, Oct. 29.—Calgary Tigers of the Northwestern Hockey League will get four players from the National Hockey League, it was learned yesterday evening. "Roosie" Helmer, Amerks coach, offered Mel Snowden, Bill Wright, Bob McGregor and an unnamed forward to Tigers for the 1935-36 season. Tigers officials asked the players be sent here as soon as possible.

Grads Win Series In Three Straight

Defeat St. Louis Girls 43 to 24 to Retain Women's International Basketball Title; Game Marks Retirement of Percy Page and Margaret MacBurney

Edmonton, Oct. 29.—Edmonton Commercial Grads yesterday evening took the third straight game from St. Louis Shaw-Stephens, 43 to 24, and ended a series in defence of their international women's basketball championship. The game marked the last in which Coach J. Percy Page, who built the original Grad team to champions back in 1923, will be at the coaching helm.

The game also marked the retirement of Margaret MacBurney, veteran of ten years, who is hanging up her playing togs after playing with the Grads since 1925.

In contrast to the crowds of approximately 3,000 that watched the first two games, less than 300 persons were at the game while snow blanketed the city.

The chilly arena caused a hitch in the smooth teamwork of the Grads and they trailed through most of the first half, barely going ahead 17 to 15 at half time, after trailing 8 to 6 at quarter-time.

After warming up in the second quarter, the team clicked in the third to run the count up to 28 to 20 and widened the gap in the last quarter.

The Grads have held the Alberta championship continuously since 1922, under the guidance of Coach Page. The Canadian championship has also been theirs for many years, as well as the world title, international honors and the Olympic laurels, which means Percy Page has won more glory for a single team than any other living basketball mentor.

Arnold Henderson, former keyman of the University of British Columbia quintette, will take over the coaching duties of the famous squad, but Page will be in there as manager and help Henderson direct the team during games.

Teams and scores follow:
St. Louis—Mary Ducker 7, Alois

Martensmeyer 1, Mary Ruddy 2, Catherine Ducker 3, Dorothy Ducker, Bernice Prillman 3 and Irene Piper (not on floor). Total 24.
Edmonton—Margaret MacBurney 6, Babe Belanger 4, Noel MacDonald 6, Gladys Fry 4, Doris Neale 10, Mabel Munton, Rita Dunn 2, Helen Northup and Sophie Brown 3. Total 43.
Officials—George Farney, Edmonton, and Harry Wilson, Chicago.

OLIN-LEWIS ARE ALL SET

In Perfect Trim for Lightweight Bout Thursday Night

St. Louis, Oct. 29.—Champion Bob Olin and John Henry Lewis, negro challenger, yesterday were officially pronounced physically fit for their lightweight title clash on Thursday, as the promoters voiced concern at an injunction suit aimed at stopping the show.

Both fighters weighed 175 pounds as they appeared before the physician for the Missouri Boxing Commission. Low Raymond and Benny Greenberg, promoting the first championship fight in St. Louis in years, pressed belief the show would go on after a hearing to-day on a request of the Madison Square Garden Corporation for an injunction prohibiting the fight.

The New York corporation asserts Olin had agreed to make his next title defence for the Garden management. He contends the agreement is void as the Garden had sufficient opportunity to arrange a bout and failed to act.

Start Redraft Of Health Bill

Hearings Committee Meets Here to Complete Report

Redrafting of the British Columbia health insurance bill into workable shape for presentation to the B.C. Legislature next session will start shortly, it was indicated today by Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, as his special "hearings committee" met again to prepare their report.

The report of this committee, it is understood, will embody in summary form the 129 oral presentations made to it at public hearings, probably with recommendations.

At the same time the permanent staff on health insurance, under Dr. Alton Peabie, technical adviser, has been gathering a mass of information from other parts of the world where similar schemes are in force or are contemplated.

On the basis of this information, with the viewpoints of those who appeared before the committee, Dr. Weir said he hoped to present to the House an acceptable measure. The original bill will be considerably altered in many of its provisions. In the first place it was drafted as a comprehensive plan for discussion.

HURT ON BUS WINS DAMAGES

Judge Awards D. Johnston $357 for Injuries

Douglas Parquhar Johnston recently sued the Vancouver Island Coach Lines for damages, claiming that while he was traveling from Cowichan Station to Victoria in a bus, the swaying of the bus as it came along the Goldstream section of the Island Highway caused a spare seat to fall from the overhead rack. The seat, Mr. Johnston testified on the witness stand hit him on the shoulder with such force as to cause him severe suffering and an injury which was lasting and forced him to submit to medical treatment.

70-day Judge Lampan gave judgment against the Coach Lines, awarding Mr. Johnston $357 damages.

Rev. C. E. Silcox Here To-day

Social Service Council Secretary, Speaking in City, Has Arduous Tour

Rev. Claris E. Silcox, general secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada, who is addressing the Women's Canadian Club here on the "Meaning of Citizenship in the Americas," has an arduous speaking tour ahead, he disclosed when seen at the Empress Hotel this morning.

On his speaking tour of western Canadian Clubs, Rev. Mr. Silcox addressed the Central Council of Social Agencies in Winnipeg on the "Possibilities and Limitations of Social Planning in a Dynamic World," and in Vancouver yesterday he addressed the men's and women's Canadian Clubs, the first on the "Meaning of Citizenship" and the latter on "Canada's Place Among the Nations."

At lunch to-day he met ministers in "retreat" at Royal Oak and addressed them on the work of social service in Canada.

This week he will go on-island and will speak at Nanaimo, Qualicum Beach, Courtenay and Port Alberni. On Sunday next he will preach at Chalmers Church and Christ Church at Vancouver.

Then he will head into the Peace River block and will address the Canadian Club at Peace Coups.

Rev. Mr. Silcox is one of the few men who have carried on scientific social studies in every country of the Western Hemisphere.

He is a prolific writer and is the author of a number of social-religious books, the most recent of which is "Celts, Jews and Protestants." He is now working on a new book, "Religious Reciprocity Between the U.S. and Canada."

He writes frequently for The New Outlook.

Mr. Silcox is a native of Ontario, his great-grandfather coming out from Somerset, England, in 1817, and founding the first Congregational Church in Upper Canada. On his mother's side he is descended from the French Huguenots, who left France for England after the massacre of St. Bartholomew's Eve.

After graduating in 1909 from the University of Toronto, where he completed the special course in English, history and classics, Mr. Silcox went to Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island, where he acted as general secretary of the Brown Christian Association and also engaged in graduate studies in Biblical literature, philosophy, sociology and English.

Between 1912 and 1914 he studied theology at Andover Theological Seminary and Harvard University. He was ordained to the Congregational ministry in 1914, and for eleven years held pastorates at Newport, R.I.; Fairfield, Conn., and Forest Hills Garden Long Island, N.Y.

Mr. Silcox in 1925 joined the staff of "The Inquiry," an organization seeking to further educational processes aiming at better understanding between conflicting groups of the world. His first assignment was to the World's Y.M.C.A. at Geneva, where he assisted in the preparations for the Y.M.C.A. at Helsinki, Finland. In this connection he has a major responsibility for the preparation of the report on "The Mind of Modern Youth," which was the basis of the group discussions at the conference.

Leaving "The Inquiry" in January, 1929, he assisted the National Conference of Jews and Christians in their earliest educational ventures. From May, 1929, to September, 1930, Mr. Silcox was engaged by the International Study of the Jewish work of the International Y.M.C.A. of the United States and Canada, and the National Y.W.C.A. visiting Spain, Portugal, Cuba, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Uruguay and other countries of Central and South America.

He was asked by the Institute of Social and Religious Research in 1930 to make an objective study of the causes and consequences of the Jewish union movement which resulted in the formation of the United Church of Canada.

ACCIDENT IS JURY VERDICT

Police Charges Before Inquests Questioned by Jury

Accidental death was the verdict of the coroner's jury this morning which investigated the traffic crash on September 29, in which Mr. and Mrs. W. X. McCarter met death.

Recommendations that Hillside Avenue should be made an arterial highway from Shellburne to Quadra Streets and that the practice by police of charging persons involved in accidents before the result of a coroner's inquest is known should be brought to the attention of the Attorney-General, were made by the jury.

As a result of the crash which occurred at Hillside Avenue and Blackwood Street, Francis (Frank) R. Findlay is charged with manslaughter, and is now awaiting trial.

The inquest was held at the B.C. Funeral Parlour.

Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner, overruled a protest from H. W. Davey, counsel for the accused, appearing for H. A. Beckwith, his counsel during the preliminary hearing. Mr. Davey asked that the inquest be remanded two weeks until criminal proceedings had been completed.

The accused was not under criminal trial for a manslaughter charge and should the coroner's jury return a manslaughter verdict counsel felt it might affect the criminal jury in the Assize Court.

Mr. Davey also based his plea for remand on the fact that Mr. Beckwith was out of the city and could not possibly attend to-day.

In support of his contention that the inquest verdict might sway the criminal jury, Mr. Davey submitted that in England the coroner's hearing could not proceed until all criminal proceedings were completed. This order was set by statute and the proceedings of the inquest this morning would be complete reversal of that order.

While there was no Canada law governing the order of procedure in such matters, he asked that the order be observed in favour of the accused.

A verdict of manslaughter, returned by the coroner's jury would be given without the accused's evidence, he continued. The Assize Court would open next Monday, and he asked that the inquest be stood over until the trial finished.

Dr. Hart agreed the procedure in England was the proper way, and also stated he was not satisfied with Canadian procedure. There was, however, no regulation governing it, and he would make an acquiescence to adjourning the inquest.

The fact that Mr. Beckwith was not present did not constitute argument for an adjournment since legal representation was not required at an inquest, although the doctor was always to be seen by lawyers in attendance. The coroner said he would not adjourn his court for the absence of a lawyer.

Evidence presented at the inquest was similar to that given during the preliminary hearing in the City Police Court, the same witnesses being called.

Mr. Davey questioned several of the witnesses while members of the jury also made several queries.

Witnesses on the jury were: Dr. William Endicott, Cyril Jones, Detective Henry Jarvis, Constable Reg. Lanning, Ernest W. Bird, driver of the car containing Mr. and Mrs. McCarter, Harry I. Curtis, Mrs. Irene McCarter, Archibald Gillies and Jack Gillies.

Members of the jury were: E. O. McKay, foreman; Leonard Holyoak, W. L. Morgan, Fred Harris Hale, S. J. D. Clark, James McGrath and E. E. Heath.

SET THURSDAY FOR MEETING

The City Council will sit at the public works committee on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock to review projects suggested for Victoria's $100,000 loan programme, it was announced by Mayor Leeming today.

The committee will hear two or three citizens during the session before returning to council to take action on the loan projects.

FUEL INQUIRY CONCLUDING

Preparation of Report to Follow Completion of Evidence-taking This Week

The B.C. Fuel Commission under Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald investigating the costs and prices of coal, fuel oil and gasoline, today moved to Vancouver to open there to-morrow what is expected to be its concluding sessions for the taking of evidence.

At the conclusion of evidence taking, C. H. O'Halloran, commission counsel, and other lawyers representing various interests, will deliver their summings-up arguments. After the judge will turn to producing his report, which will probably take some weeks.

At the final sitting here, Kenneth Moodie, provincial inspector of heating, presented a paper in which he proposed that the battle between the coal and the fuel oil interests be ended in a truce through the introduction of a compromise fuel, made of a combination of pulverized coal and oil.

Mr. O'Halloran undertook to obtain through the Attorney-General for B.C. in London, all information on the coal treatment processes being developed by the Imperial Chemical Industries in Britain.

A Bruce Robertson, counsel for the coal companies, said that with oil and coal so nearly balanced in relative values, it would be futile to go to the expense of mixing the two fuels, thus adding to the cost.

C. D. Orchard of the forestry department was called to give technical evidence regarding fire hazards, and statements regarding fire hazards made by operators attending the B.C. Loggers' Association convention a few days ago in Vancouver.

S. J. HEAD PASSES AWAY

Former Merchant of Shawnigan Lake Succumbs in Jubilee Hospital

Sidney Joseph Head of 481 Constance Avenue, passed away at the Jubilee Hospital yesterday evening, aged sixty-seven years. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mr. Head was born in Nottinghamshire, England, and came to Victoria forty-four years ago.

For some years he conducted a grocery store on Douglas Street, and later moved to Shawnigan Lake, where he was a well-known merchant. Mr. Head was an active worker for the Shawnigan Lake Athletic Association, and was identified with the annual regatta there for many years. He was also The Daily Times correspondent for that district until ill-health curtailed his activities and caused his removal to Victoria.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, one brother and one sister, in England, and two brothers in Esquimalt.

FIVE OFFICIALS VISITING CITY

Five officials connected with the provincial government were registered on the visitors' list of the Dominion Hotel here to-day.

Dr. J. J. Gillis, M.P.P., arrived in Victoria last night from Merritt, B.C., in connection with the Health Insurance Board.

Dr. John Kay, Parker Williams, E. H. Winn and R. B. Fulton of Vancouver, members of the Workmen's Compensation Board, also arrived at the Dominion Hotel last night on an official visit to Victoria.

OIL COMPANY OFFICIALS

In addition to the government members, three officials of the Standard Oil Company are among the prominent visitors at the hotel.

At the conclusion of a month's trip through Northern British Columbia, J. D. Fraser and J. A. Killam of Vancouver and D. Baker of Seattle arrived here on the Ss. Princess Maquinna of the B.C. Coast Service of the Canadian Pacific yesterday.

Leaving Vancouver at the end of last month, they made an official tour on behalf of the oil companies by way of Prince Rupert, Bella Bella, the Princess Charlotte Islands and the north end of Vancouver Island, where they joined the Maquinna.

Other visitors at the hotel include Mrs. J. H. Bell and Shirley Bell of Montreal, Ontario, who are here on a brief trip, and F. Burns of London, England.

deceased was held. The pallbearers were: J. A. Heritage, Robert Moffatt, Captain A. Heritage, Captain Douglas Brown, Thomas Moffatt and D. C. Robertson.

ALL SHOULD STUDY ART

Music is Key to Happiness, Says Pietro Yon, Noted Organist and Composer

Pietro Yon, world famous organist who will appear in recital at the Metropolitan Church this evening, believes that any person, no matter what business or profession they may take up in life, should make a study of at least one of the fine arts.

In support of this he quotes an old Italian proverb, which translated means, "learn one art if keep it in reserve."

"Music is the key to happiness," the organist said when interviewed at the Empress Hotel to-day.

"People would be much happier if they made a study of one of the arts—music, painting or sculpture."

His expressive eyes glowed with pride as he spoke of his fifteen-year-old son, Mario, who hopes to become a doctor, but who, at the suggestion of his father, is also studying music.

"How many people who have had the opportunity to study music, who have given it up in their youth because it was tiresome, and have regretted it later in life, blaming their parents for it?"

"Everybody should study one of the arts, and if it is music, it is a step in the progress of culture," he said.

Organist and composer of world-wide fame, Mr. Yon is honorary organist of the Vatican at Rome, and organist and music director at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York.

This is the first time he has played in British Columbia, Edmonton being the farthest west Canadian city in which he has appeared in concert work.

QUAKE UPSET PLANS

On his present tour Mr. Yon was under contract to play at Helena, Montana, when the earthquake intervened and upset his schedule programme.

He played in St. Paul and Olivia, Minnesota, and at Spokane, Wash., before coming on to Victoria.

He will return by way of Texas, Oklahoma and the middle states, arriving back in New York November 22.

Next spring, Mr. Yon plans to make a tour of Great Britain, a prospect which he has long anticipated.

The English people, he says, are great lovers of organ music. The fact that people have been taught and trained to listen to spiritual entertainments to such an extent, and the progress of organ concert work generally, is due largely to the attitude of the English people to the organ class.

At the same time he gave unstinted praise to the marvelous work accomplished by Italy, France and Germany in organ development.

Music, in the opinion of Mr. Yon, acts as a thermometer of business conditions.

"Musical entertainment is one of the first things that goes with the public when business conditions are good and it is the first to be cut off when business is bad," the organist said. "It is the box office receipts that tell the story."

In support of this Mr. Yon said that at the peak of the boom days in 1928, he played seventy-six concerts in a six-month season in the United States, and two years ago, at the climax of the depression, he played but one concert, at Springfield, Mass., and was unable to collect but part of the receipts.

Last season was good for organ recitals, he said, and this season "it looks as if it is going over the top."

Mr. Yon is a native of Italy, where at the age of six years he commenced his musical education under the guidance of his elder brother, Constantino, subsequently attending the Royal Conservatories at Milan and Turin.

He entered the Academy of St. Cecilia in Rome in 1904, was graduated with full honors and was awarded the first prize medal of the academy and a special prize medal from the Italian minister of public instruction. Mr. Yon made his formal debut as substitute organist at the Vatican and the Royal Church of Rome in 1905 and in 1907 he was appointed organist and choirmaster of the Church of St. Francis Xavier in New York. In 1921 he was elected honorary organist of the S.S. Basilica of St. Peter, Vatican, Rome, and in 1926 he was appointed organist and music director of St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York.

The King of Italy conferred upon Mr. Yon the honor of knighthood and later the title of Officer of the Crown of Italy. Notwithstanding his high achievements in ecclesiastical circles, Mr. Yon's fame was won by his remarkable performances as a virtuoso concert-organist and through his compositions. He is a pioneer of the concert organ and works incessantly to make this form of entertainment popular and raise it to the highest level of artistic ideals.

This morning, Mr. Yon paid a visit to St. Ann's Convent in company with Frank Sehl.

Appointment of a new secretary to Fire Chief Alec Munroe, put through at the preceding meeting of the City Council, was brought up for reconsideration at the council's session yesterday evening. The mayor matter was referred back to Mayor Leeming, the city solicitor and the city comptroller to determine the legality of the procedure.

"Y" DIRECTORS MAKE REPORTS

Statements Show Local Institution Progressing Favorably

Reports of the various departments of the Y.M.C.A., given at the directors' meeting last evening, showed the institution to be making progress in its many activities.

W. T. Straith, chairman of the boys' division, reported that the junior, intermediate and prep classes had held forty sessions since the season began, and had a total attendance of 639.

It was further reported that the city-wide boys' conference, held the second week in October, had been a very successful affair.

The basketball teams were called together and held their opening workouts under Harold McLean and Lorne Ritchie, intermediate and junior coaches respectively, with plans made to enter the Sunday School League.

The Kiwanis boys' committee held its first meeting of the season on September 20 and proceeded to revise the current membership list.

CAMP SITE REQUIRED

Outstanding as an event in the last month was the acquiring of the camp site as a permanent possession of the "Y." Mr. Straith stated in his report. It opened up the possibilities of the institution regaining the place it held in camping fifteen years ago, he said.

Dr. D. M. Best announced that the Vancouver Y.M.C.A. was planning to hold a campaign in 1937 to raise funds for a new building in that city. The building would cost $425,000, and would be erected on the site owned by the Y.M.C.A. on Burrard Street, close to the St. Andrew's Wesley Church.

In his report for the educational committee, E. G. Rowbottom stated that the educational activities of the Y.M.C.A. were progressing most satisfactorily with exceptionally good attendance. Mr. Rowbottom stated that the committee had met on September 27 and that Dr. A. M. Menzies and his group were asked to deal with the matter of a course in economics, and to bring in a report at the next meeting.

F. Paulding was requested to investigate the possibility of a course in the Chinese language.

A report on the progress and activity in the Camera Club was given by Wilson Billingsly, stating that this organization was in a very healthy condition.

J. V. Johnson's statement for the physical department showed attendance of 1,236 at seventy-three sessions in twenty-one classes during September.

The house committee report given by the committee with changes in the lobby as put forward by the Women's Auxiliary to the Y.M.C.A. The plan is to partition the lobby for a social hall at a cost of $175.

RIPE RASPBERRIES

It may seem like winter temporarily to most people, but to D. Peruliet, 440 Duplin Road, it is still raspberry time, although raspberry season ended several weeks ago.

Mr. Peruliet to-day brought in to The Times raspberry canes, heavily laden with large, red, ripening berries. They were placed on exhibit in The Times street window.

The variety is the "Pillabur" raspberry. Mr. Peruliet said. Most canes do not bear fruit until their second year, but these producing the large and late berries are producing in their first season.

Mr. Peruliet went in for raspberry speculation three years ago, and has been very successful in the response he has had from his experiments.

Practicability of Social Justice Discussed by Prof. H. F. Angus

The question of the practicability of social justice under the present system or any other system was raised, expanded, and left for their decision with an audience of over 250 last night by Professor H. F. Angus of the faculty of the University of British Columbia, speaking at Girls' Central School.

The lecture was the second of a series of four. The first was given by Professor Angus on Monday of last week. It and the second aimed at raising questions in the minds of the audience for study and consideration. In January Professor Angus will return to discuss with his audience the answers which they have found.

It was necessary, said Professor Angus, that people look upon the conditions under which they lived as reasonably fair for two reasons; first, that of social security, that they admit the right of the ruling power; second, that of stimulation of life, for men and women only did their best work when they were convinced that the system under which they worked was a fair one.

Under the capitalist system help was given to the victims of natural circumstances as a matter of charity, not as duty. For some this system was still satisfactory. Others saw that the people who suffered through the introduction of new techniques in industry should not bear the burden alone, but that the weight should be distributed evenly over the whole community.

In considering the distribution of property, he said, it was necessary to ask the question, "Do people deserve the incomes they get?"

Under the present system wages represented payment for services in proportion to the willingness of people to purchase those services; irrespective of the needs of the man who was selling them. The willingness to purchase depended on the earnings of the persons who were likely to purchase, so that each income was really dependent on all other incomes.

Four possible standards of social justice were reviewed by Professor Angus, who pointed out that even the conceptions of the term varied enormously between each individual, according to his circumstances.

The standard most respected to-day was that of what might be termed honesty; the preservation of the vested interests not of a monopoly but of all men.

It meant that people must be able to raise their reasonable and legitimate expectations of income in the future.

This standard of honesty might be compared to that of a good bookie or an honest bank at a gambling table.

Under some circumstances honesty must give way to greater necessities. There was a great difference in opinion in each community as to how harsh those circumstances must be before the break took place. As an example of such a break with contracted obligations, Professor Angus quoted the Australian depression slogan, "Babies before bonds."

The second possible standard of social justice was that of services rendered to the community. It was the principle of "If a man does more, give more."

The question would be a simple one if all men had equal opportunities. Then all would subscribe to this principle.

But the test of service was a difficult one. It was hard to set a standard for the value of service. To-day the market for service was measured by the demands of people with incomes, not the whole community. Also, with the technical changes in industry, the value of each man's service was continually changing.

The third and easiest standard was to take the line of equality of income for all men, presuming that their basic needs were approximately equal.

The fourth standard, theoretically the most perfect and practically the most difficult of application, was that of distributing income in proportion to needs, along the lines generally followed within the limits of the family.

Outside the family, on a social scale, the task of balancing the needs of each group against the other was practically an impossible one. The need of education had to be weighed, for instance, against that of providing protection against crime.

Even inside the family limits examples of the difficulty of the application of this standard were to be found.

POPULAR STAR AT DOMINION

Maureen O'Sullivan Plays One of Leads in "The Bishop Misbehaves"

A London bishop on a rampage of mystery—a young couple who try to be amateur criminals—and a hilarious plot in which the bishop, who reads detective stories, turns Sherlock Holmes and out-Holmes any detective ever heard of before—these are among the diverting details of "The Bishop Misbehaves," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's merry comedy-mystery now showing at the Dominion Theatre.

Maureen O'Sullivan and Norman Foster play the romantic leads as the young couple who delve into amateur crime in a madcap revenge scheme, and Edmund Gwenn, distinguished British character actor, plays the bishop who trips them up in his nefarious plan, who baffles crooks with a snuffbox, who finds the missing dog, uncovers a swindler, and otherwise sets all things right amid a hilariously funny sequence of situations.

E. A. Dupont, famous European director of "Variety" and other hits, directed the whimsical new story, based on the successful Broadway stage play by Fred Jackson. The cast includes Lucile Watson as the bishop's thrill-loving sister; Reginald Owen, hilarious comedian of "Ziegfeld"; Dudley Digges, Ivan Simpson, Lilian Bond, Arthur Treacher and Charles McNaughton.

Elaborate settings add spectacle to several sequences in the whimsical story of London life.

COLUMBIA THEATRE
Director John M. Stahl was filming a scene for the Universal drama, "Imitation of Life," now showing on the screen of the Columbia Theatre, a close-up of Claudette Colbert and the young-old Baby Jane in several "take the little girl was a little uncertain of her action and dialogue, and Stahl finally said, 'Now, Baby Jane, you make the next one extra good, and I'll buy you an ice cream cone.' On the next trial the child did her part perfectly, but Miss Colbert, in her anxiety for the young star, made a slip in her own lines. 'I made a mistake,' said Stahl. 'I should have promised the cone to Claudette.'

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE
During the filming on "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" set, a humorous incident occurred when a photographer prepared to get a "close-up" picture of the star. A hoop in her skirt was so large it had to be removed for the cameraman to get his lens near enough for the "still!"

Norma Shearer plays Elizabeth to Frederic March's Robert Browning in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer filmation of the famous stage play. Charles Laughton makes his initial American film appearance in more than a year in the grim father role. The picture is at the Playhouse Theatre.

CAPITOL THEATRE
Two pretty alert terriers, one a black Aberdeen and the other a white Bealyham, stand guard outside Madeleine Carroll's dressing room door when she is working. They are Miss Carroll's inseparable companions and each has a whole bagful of tricks they delight in showing off at her command.

Madeleine Carroll's newest picture, "The 39 Steps," a GB production in which she co-stars with Robert Donat, with Lucie Mannheim, Godfrey Tearle and Peggy Ashcroft, is now at the Capitol Theatre.

LITTLE ORPHEUM THEATRE
Sidney with Gene Raymond featured, one of the studio's guards was lifted from his duties at the gate and cast for an important bit.

"When Miss Sidney came on the lot, he approached her, tipped his hat and spoke. The star stared at him blankly for a moment, then smiled.

"Oh! you're Mr.," she said, naming another player.

"No, Miss Sidney," he said with a smile. "The man who's been operating the studio gates for you for the last two years."

POPULAR STAR AT DOMINION

Maureen O'Sullivan Plays One of Leads in "The Bishop Misbehaves"

A London bishop on a rampage of mystery—a young couple who try to be amateur criminals—and a hilarious plot in which the bishop, who reads detective stories, turns Sherlock Holmes and out-Holmes any detective ever heard of before—these are among the diverting details of "The Bishop Misbehaves," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's merry comedy-mystery now showing at the Dominion Theatre.

Maureen O'Sullivan and Norman Foster play the romantic leads as the young couple who delve into amateur crime in a madcap revenge scheme, and Edmund Gwenn, distinguished British character actor, plays the bishop who trips them up in his nefarious plan, who baffles crooks with a snuffbox, who finds the missing dog, uncovers a swindler, and otherwise sets all things right amid a hilariously funny sequence of situations.

E. A. Dupont, famous European director of "Variety" and other hits, directed the whimsical new story, based on the successful Broadway stage play by Fred Jackson. The cast includes Lucile Watson as the bishop's thrill-loving sister; Reginald Owen, hilarious comedian of "Ziegfeld"; Dudley Digges, Ivan Simpson, Lilian Bond, Arthur Treacher and Charles McNaughton.

Elaborate settings add spectacle to several sequences in the whimsical story of London life.

COLUMBIA THEATRE
Director John M. Stahl was filming a scene for the Universal drama, "Imitation of Life," now showing on the screen of the Columbia Theatre, a close-up of Claudette Colbert and the young-old Baby Jane in several "take the little girl was a little uncertain of her action and dialogue, and Stahl finally said, 'Now, Baby Jane, you make the next one extra good, and I'll buy you an ice cream cone.' On the next trial the child did her part perfectly, but Miss Colbert, in her anxiety for the young star, made a slip in her own lines. 'I made a mistake,' said Stahl. 'I should have promised the cone to Claudette.'

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE
During the filming on "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" set, a humorous incident occurred when a photographer prepared to get a "close-up" picture of the star. A hoop in her skirt was so large it had to be removed for the cameraman to get his lens near enough for the "still!"

Norma Shearer plays Elizabeth to Frederic March's Robert Browning in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer filmation of the famous stage play. Charles Laughton makes his initial American film appearance in more than a year in the grim father role. The picture is at the Playhouse Theatre.

CAPITOL THEATRE
Two pretty alert terriers, one a black Aberdeen and the other a white Bealyham, stand guard outside Madeleine Carroll's dressing room door when she is working. They are Miss Carroll's inseparable companions and each has a whole bagful of tricks they delight in showing off at her command.

Madeleine Carroll's newest picture, "The 39 Steps," a GB production in which she co-stars with Robert Donat, with Lucie Mannheim, Godfrey Tearle and Peggy Ashcroft, is now at the Capitol Theatre.

LITTLE ORPHEUM THEATRE
Sidney with Gene Raymond featured, one of the studio's guards was lifted from his duties at the gate and cast for an important bit.

"When Miss Sidney came on the lot, he approached her, tipped his hat and spoke. The star stared at him blankly for a moment, then smiled.

"Oh! you're Mr.," she said, naming another player.

"No, Miss Sidney," he said with a smile. "The man who's been operating the studio gates for you for the last two years."

Tarzan The Untame

Roger Cecil was some hundred yards from his plane. It was at this instant that Numbao, chief of the Wamabo, chose to leap from his ambush and lead his warriors in a sudden rush upon the white man. The young Englishman had had no intimation of danger.

There was a chorus of savage yells and howling. Roger saw a score of black, naked warriors advancing upon him. A quick glance showed him they had cut off all chance of his retreating to his airplane and that their attitude was hostile.

Heavily armed with spears, bows and arrows, he knew they could overtake him at the first rush in spite of his pistol. Numbao was leading and the lustiest aimed at the lucky chief. Unluckily for the Englishman he missed his target.

Otherwise the killing of their chief might have depressed the others. The bullet struck a warrior, and as he lunged forward, screaming, the others retreated. But Cecil's charger they ran toward his plane; so that he was still out of their escape.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX - I am a young man, married to a beautiful and charming girl. I decided her about my age, for I am a few months younger than she is, but by some unfortunate accident she found my birth certificate and since then she refuses to talk to me and spends the time in tears and gloom. We were so happy, loving, living and laughing together until this happened. Now all is changed and we are miserable. I fear I will lose her and I will go mad if I do. What can I do? O. A. G.

Answer: I think your wife must be singularly lacking in good old, hard, horse sense if she is letting such an insignificant thing as a few months' difference in age wreck a happy marriage. If she had found out that you had another wife, or that you had some terrible blot upon your past, or that you were a drunkard, or took dope, she might feel that she had been deceived into marriage, and that she had cause for grief. But when your secret is nothing more serious than a birthday it is to laugh.

It is curious what a pother some people make about the age factor in marriage and how many romances it blights. In this same mail there is a letter from a man of forty who hesitates to marry a girl fifteen years his junior because he fears he is too old for her. And another from a man who is desperately unhappy because the woman he is in love with is six years older than he is and refuses to marry him because she says she won't ruin his life by adding an old wife on him.

All of which is the most utter nonsense, because there are a thousand things more important to consider in picking out a husband or wife than his or her age. And the way a marriage turns out depends upon the congeniality and suitability and characters and manners and habits of the high contrasting parties, not upon which has the most candles on his or her birthday cake.

Of course, when December weds May, disaster is bound to ensue. This happens just as often when an old man marries a flapper as when an old woman buys herself a boy husband. But, leaving out a great disparity of years, it doesn't make a particle of difference whether the wife or the husband is the elder so far as the success of the marriage goes.

As a matter of fact you cannot go by the calendar in judging the real age of an individual. There are men and women who are mere girls and boys at seventy, and boys and girls who are senile at seventeen. It is our dispositions and "ways" that keep young and flexible or get wrinkled and stiff and have rheumatism in their joints.

So when a man thinks of marrying a girl fifteen years younger than himself he should not worry over her literal age. He should consider her personality. If she is a quiet, intelligent, thoughtful sort of a girl, a domestic girl, one who likes to read and prefers placid pleasures, what we call a "settled" girl, it is perfectly safe for her to marry a man many years older than herself.

But, on the other hand, if she is a filthy-bibbity, wild, harum-scarum kind of a girl, a girl who must be always on the go and who lives on excitement and is bored to death with domesticity, then she is a bad bet for a middle-aged man as a wife. She should marry somebody as young and pleasure-loving as herself.

And just the same thing holds good about the man marrying the woman older than himself. If he is old for his age and she is young for hers, they meet on a common ground and age becomes negligible. Nor is there any reason why a man should not marry a woman older than himself if he is of the mother-complex type. Many such marriages are most happy, because the older woman can give the husband a love and tenderness that no young wife could.

The objection formerly made to such marriages was that women aged quicker than men did, but this is not true now that women make a cult of youth and good looks. And most of them stay a perpetual thirty-nine.

DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX - Assuming one is equally fond of both, is it better to marry the man to whom one is physically attracted but of lesser education, or marry the man who is mentally superior? M. H.

Answer: I confess I cannot understand how it is possible for a woman to be equally in love with two men. I would think there surely must be some preference one way or the other that would tilt the scales for her. But assuming that this marvel is possible, I should say that she would have a better chance of happiness if she married the man to whom she was physically attracted, even if he were a low-brow, than she would if she married the highbrow who comes up to her ideal, but does not fire her fancy.

It is foolish to ignore the importance of physical attraction in marriage. Many persons think that it is the most important thing in marriage, and while I cannot agree that it takes the place of mental and spiritual congeniality, there is no doubt that it makes one of the strongest bonds between a man and woman and adds a glamour to marriage that is lacking when there are no thrills to the touch of a hand, no fire to a kiss, none of that intangible drawing to another just because he is he, or she is she, that we can neither explain nor resist.

To marry a man just because he has physical attraction for you is a dangerous business, because that does not always last. But to marry a man who repulses you physically is also to court disaster, because it turns wedding cake into dust and ashes on your lips.

DOROTHY DIX.

UNCLE WIGGILY'S TRAFFIC LIGHTS

By HOWARD R. GARIS

One day when Uncle Wiggily was out riding in his automobile that had fat bologna sausages for tires he sprinkled some red pepper on them so fast. This was what he always did when he wanted to speed a little in looking for an adventure.

But, as it happened, no sooner had the rabbit gentleman put red pepper on his bologna tires to go fast than the traffic light at the corner changed from green to red.

Uncle Wiggily put on his brakes and tried to stop, but the pepper was making him go so fast he couldn't. Thus he passed the red light and at once the traffic cop saw his white and barked:

"Pull over to the curb!"

"Oh, dear me!" thought Mr. Longears as he did what he was told. "Now I suppose I'll get a ticket."

But the traffic police dog was a jolly chap. He had seen Uncle Wiggily before, but he pretended he hadn't and barked at him:

"Where's the fire?"

"What fire?" asked Mr. Longears.

"Why I thought you were going to a fire the way you speeded past the red light," said the traffic police dog.

TOO MUCH PEPPER ON TIRES

"Oh, no, officer. It was just that I had too much pepper on my bologna tires," said Uncle Wiggily. "I'm sorry and -"

"Well, don't let it happen again," growled the dog. "Pull out. You're lucky I didn't give you a ticket."

"Yes, I guess I am," said the rabbit gentleman. He drove more slowly after that, out to the woods, where he left his auto to hop around and look for an adventure.

He had almost found a jolly one when, all of a sudden, out from behind a stump popped the Bob Cat with his side a little taller than a two-for-a-cent lollipop. "Looky, Uncle Wiggily," said the Bob Cat in time to hop back to his auto and start away.

"I'll put a lot of pepper on my tires and go as fast as I can to fool the Bob Cat," said Uncle Wiggily. "This he did, and as he had no more traffic lights to pass he didn't get caught. Soon he was back at his bungalow and the Bob Cat was far away.

"But he may come at night and try to get in my bungalow," said the rabbit gentleman. "I wish I had some red lanterns all around my bungalow so the Bob Cat, if he came at night when I am asleep, would think they were traffic lights and they'd stop. Then they couldn't get me, for being red lanterns the lights wouldn't change to green like traffic lights, so they would go on."

The more he thought of this the better Uncle Wiggily liked it until he made up his mind to put red lights all around his bungalow.

"I'll fool the Bob Cat," he said. He got some red lanterns at the 4 and 4 cent store and put them all over his bungalow all night. After he had done this he went to bed. "Hello, look at that!" started the Wolf, "red light!"

"Yes, and there's probably a traffic cop hiding in the shadows," said the Fox. While the Bob Cat sneezed:

"We'll sit here and wait for the light to change to green. Then we can cross and get Uncle Wiggily. So the Bob Cat sat down to wait. But the lights stayed red all night and when morning came they were still that color, the Bob Cat, all tired out, went home. And if you can pull out one side of the letter R, to make it look like H, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily going hunting.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel"

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1935

According to astrology this is rather an indifferent day in planetary government. The hours should be employed without running unnecessary risks, because secret dangers are discerned under this way.

Accidents may be numerous, for there is a configuration that promises evil, and fires and shots due to unexpected causes. With this planetary government continues butting and plotting may be widespread. Deceptions of many sorts are likely to be prevalent.

Many destructive storms are foretold for next month, which will damage property in certain places. Earthquakes may cause loss.

The Pacific Coast as well as the rest of Canada may experience severe weather through the winter. Unusual conditions in industry will add to anxieties.

Alaska now will be much like the time of the day, because it will be a place of good fortune for many new settlers.

British financiers will have reason to boast of prosperity, although colonial sources of income will be of small value. Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of gain in reputation as well as in wealth. Zenobia will be of unusual value.

Children born on this day probably will be witty and brilliant. Subjects of this sign reach success.

Gertrude Atherton, noted author, was born on this day, 1875. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Roscoe Conkling, politician, 1829, and John Rogers, designer of popular folk-stories, 1925.
